WRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE.

A Maine Schooner Found, with Two Dead Bodies on Board.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 8.—The master of the schooner Oliver Bridge reports: May 1, 150 miles from Cape Ann, fell in with and boarded a schooner from Yarmouth, almost under water, with both masts lying across the deck. The dead bodies of two men were found in the cabin. She is supposed to be the schooner Bessie Gardner, of Yarmouth, of sixty tons burden, some time missing.

THE NEW DOMINION.

The Canadian Government Follows the United States in Repealing the Duty on Tea and Coffee.

OTTAWA, May 8.—In the House, last night, Sir F. HINCKS said that a week ago, in making the financial statements, he anticipated having to make a change in the Canadian tariff on account of the tariff changes of the United States. The Government has learned that last night the President had signed the bill making important tariff changes, to operate from the 1st of July next, repealing the duties on tea and coffee. The Canadian Government, therefore, proposed that, from the 1st of July next, the duties on tea and coffee imported into the Dominion should be repealed. He gave notice that on Friday next he would move for permission to do so. Grave inconvenience had followed the uncertainty prevalent for months in the United States as to what would be done with regard to those articles, but the Canadian Government designed to prevent anything of the kind here, and hence the promptitude of the Government's decision of its policy.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS.

Report of the Arms Investigating Committee—Debates on the Tariff—A New Apportionment.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The Special Arms Committee of the Senate held a meeting today for the purpose of considering the report of the arms investigation. All the members of the Committee were present for the first time since the investigation closed. The majority report, which will include all of the members save Gov. STEVENSON, was considered at length, and it was resolved to report the same to the Senate on Friday. This report will vindicate the action of the Government in every important particular. It will also discuss pretty sharply the conduct of Senators SCHURZ and SUMNER before the Committee. On Friday Senator STEVENSON will present his minority report. It has been reported that Senator SCHURZ had prepared this report, but there is no good foundation for the assertion, and the majority of the Committee believe that Mr. STEVENSON alone is responsible for it.

THE TARIFF QUESTION.

The House became speedily lost in the meshes of abstract tariff propositions, when it took up Mr. DAWES' bill today for detailed consideration. Although tea and coffee are free beyond peradventure, a proposition to leave them out of this bill was debated by Messrs. BROOKS, KERR, KELLEY, WOOD and others, with as much gusto as though their eloquence could affect the result. The rate on bituminous coal was raised from fifty cents, where the Committee placed it, to seventy-five cents after a tough fight and a close vote of 80 to 78. The salt paragraph was next reached, and Mr. DUELL, of the Onondaga District, moved to amend by making it twelve cents instead of eight, as in the bill. Mr. MCINTYRE moved to make it free, and there the Committee of the Whole left the question until to-morrow. Mr. DAWES announced today that he should recommend a still further internal revenue reduction on stamps and on sundry annoying features of the system, which yield little revenue and embarrass business, the aggregate of which will be $10,000,000.

THE APPORTIONMENT BILL.

The House passed today what is known as the Supplementary Apportionment bill, which increases the next Congress from 283 to 292. It was originally framed in order that Vermont and New-Hampshire might not lose any of their present able Representatives. New-York gains a member, who, if he is not elected at large, it is thought will be assigned to New-York City. Florida, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Alabama, Tennessee and Louisiana each gain one.

THE LOUISIANA ELECTIONS.

During the morning hour of the Senate a bill to allow the State of Louisiana to hold the election for President of the United States on the same day as her State election, which falls on the day previous to the regular day for Presidential election, so as to avoid the necessity for holding an election there on two successive days, was under discussion. There is much opposition to the bill, and it went over with the morning hour. During the debate Mr. MORTON alluded to those who had caused the troubles in Louisiana, as having lately become affiliated with the party associates of Mr. BAYARD, the reference being to WARMOTH'S attendance at the Cincinnati Convention. Mr. BAYARD disclaimed very promptly any affiliation with WARMOTH, and said no one had a right to charge the Democratic organization with any such base connection till after the National Convention. He seemed to intimate that that Convention would repudiate the Cincinnati concern and its candidate.

Dispatches to the Associated Press.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE WORKING MEN.

The Committee of working men from New-York had an interview with Secretary BOUTWELL today, in accordance with the wishes of the President, who gave them a card of reference to the Secretary. They were accompanied by Gen. JAMES O'BEIRNE. The Secretary received them kindly, and after listening to the object of their visit and consulting with Mr. RANKIN, the Assistant Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department, agreed with the Committee that there had clearly been an evasion of the Eight-hour law, and stated to the Chairman of the Committee that proper action would be taken in the premises, and orders immediately sent to New-York to have the law enforced on the new Post-office and Custom-house buildings. He read the statement of the grievances presented by Mr. J. C. GRAHAM, the Chairman, and placed it on file. The Committee then waited on the President to thank him for his kindness and courtesy in regard to their interests. The President said he had instructed the Attorney-General to prepare an order for the immediate enforcement of the Eight-hour law on all Government works.

IMPORTANT MAIL CHANGE.

Arrangements are about to be made to divert the great through mails between New-York and Washington and New-Orleans, from their present route at Cleveland, Tenn., so as to pass thence to destination via Dalton, Ga., "Colera," Montgomery and Mobile, Ala. By this change the mails will reach New-Orleans at 9 A. M., ten and a half hours in advance of their present time of arrival via Grand Junction, Tenn., and render practicable the delivery of letters before the opening of the business day, instead of the afternoon as heretofore. A sure connection at New-Orleans with the morning mail for Texas will also be thus effected.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

Secretary BOUTWELL himself today, in conversation, set at rest the rumors about his resigning as Secretary of the Treasury, by saying that he has no such intention, and further, that he has no aspirations for the Presidency, but will support GRANT for re-election.

NOMINATIONS.

The President today nominated FRANKLIN HAVEN, Jr., to be Assistant Treasurer at Boston; Capt. DANIEL AMMEN to be Commodore in the Navy; N. H. BRAINARD to be Postmaster at Iowa City, Iowa, and BARNEY EILERMAN to be Postmaster at Marysville, California.

THE TAX ON JUDGES' SALARIES.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that the tax on the salaries of the Judges of the United States Courts, whose commissions date subsequent to the passage of the Refunding act, can only be refunded from the date of the approval of the act. Those whose commissions dated after the approval of the act the tax will be refunded from the date of the commission.

TEA AND COFFEE.

The Treasury Department has decided that, after the 1st of July next, tea and coffee shall be subject to no tax whatever, whether imported directly from the country of its production, or whether grown beyond the Cape of Good Hope and imported into the United States from places this side of the Cape. This ruling has been made in view of the provision in the bill recently passed that no further import duties shall be collected on the same.

AN INTERESTING CLAIM CASE.

The Court of Claims today rendered judgment in the case of JOSEPH A. WARE against the United States, for the claimant. WARE was a Treasury clerk, and his salary was docked $86 for absence by reason of sickness, notwithstanding a physician's certificate was produced. WARE contended that the Secretary of the Treasury had no legal right to deduct from salaries, and that the physician's certificate was unnecessary, but, if produced was conclusive of the duty of the Secretary to pay the salary provided by law. The Court decided for the claimant on both grounds.

SENTENCE OF COURT-MARTIAL CONFIRMED.

The finding of the Naval General Court-martial in the case of Capt. THOMAS H. STEVENS, by which he was sentenced to be suspended from rank and duty for three years, has been confirmed by the Secretary of the Navy, the suspension to commence from the 1st of September, 1871, the date of his actual suspension. Capt. STEVENS was in command of the Guerriere, when she was run upon a rock at Spezzia, and for this he was charged with neglect of duty, and convicted as above stated.

THE FRENCH LEGATION.

The French Government will soon be represented at Washington by a full Minister, Marquis DE NOAILLES.

AUSTIN, involving a large amount of property in Albany County, has been decided by Judge INGALLS in favor of Col. CHURCH. The contest has been spirited and protracted. Judge PARKER and W. G. HEVENOR for plaintiff; HAND, REYNOLDS, TREMAIN, and HUN for defendants.

OBITUARY.

Surgeon John S. Kitchen, United States Navy.

JOHN S. KITCHEN, M. D., Surgeon United States Navy, died yesterday morning at his residence in Philadelphia. Dr. KITCHEN was born in Philadelphia November, 1830, and was commissioned an assistant surgeon in the navy on the 1st of May, 1855. His first duty was on board the United States sloop-of-war St. Louis, on the coast of Africa, from 1855 to 1858. He was next attached to the steam frigate Wabash, the flag-ship of the Mediterranean Squadron, returning home to be promoted to passed assistant surgeon in 1859, when he was stationed at the Naval Hospital at Chelsea, Mass.

He was commissioned a Surgeon on the 1st of August, 1861, and was ordered first to the steamer Pocahontas, and subsequently to the steam sloop Mohican, of the North Atlantic Blockading Squadron. During 1862 and 1863 he was attached to the steam frigate Minnesota, the flag-ship of the North Atlantic Blockading Squadron, and on his return was ordered to the naval rendezvous at Boston. During 1864 and 1865 he was again at sea, on board the steam sloop Sacramento during her chase of the rebel iron-clad privateer Stonewall. He was then ordered as surgeon in charge of the Naval Hospital at Port Royal, S. C., from which he again went to the naval rendezvous at Boston, thence to the receiving-ship Ohio. In 1869 he was ordered to the iron-clad Dictator, in the Gulf of Mexico, and while attached to her exhibited the first decided manifestations of the disease of which he died. In 1870 he was ordered as a member of the Naval Medical Board, in session at the Naval Hospital in Philadelphia; and finally, as surgeon in charge of the Naval Hospital at Mare Island Navy-yard, from which he was invalided in September, 1871, since which time he has been confined to his residence.

Dr. KITCHEN was actively and honorably employed, without intermission, during the whole seventeen years of his connection with the navy and his prematurely early death was the result of his arduous duties and exposure. His funeral will take place on Saturday.

Joseph L. Leeds.

JOSEPH L. LEEDS, Cashier of the Stamford National Bank, of Stamford, Conn., died yesterday morning at his residence in that place, after a comparatively brief illness, surrounded by family and friends, in the thirty-fifth year of his age. For one so young in years Mr. LEEDS had seen much of financial life, and proved himself a most worthy and efficient bank officer, having held the position of cashier in the Stamford Bank for more than seven years. A noble, generous nature ever drew around him hosts of warm personal friends, to whom the sad tidings of his death will bring the deepest grief.

Illness of T. Buchanan Read.

THOMAS BUCHANAN READ, the celebrated painter and poet, who arrived in this City last week in the Scotia, has been lying sick with pleuro-pneumonia, at the Astor House, for several days, and since yesterday afternoon hopes for his recovery have been well nigh abandoned. At this writing (2 A. M.) the physicians report that it is doubtful whether he will be alive at daybreak. His wife is with him, and all the attention that kind friends could offer has been given to him. Mr. READ has gained an enviable reputation in both of the professions he has followed, and his death, should it occur, will be a cause of deep sorrow to his many public as well as personal friends.

AFFAIRS AT ALBANY.

Passage of the Vanderbilt Quick Transit Bill.

The City Not to Pay Half the Expense—Loose Practices in the District-Attorney's Office—The Brooklyn Charter—Three Dollars a Day—New-York Charter.

From Our Own Correspondent.

ALBANY, Wednesday, May 8, 1872.

The Senate spent the morning session in continuing the discussion of the Supply bill, and closed its labors by blundering into an adjournment over to 11 o'clock to-morrow morning. By oversight a motion was made to "adjourn," instead of to "take a recess," whereupon the Lieutenant-Governor declared the Senate adjourned till to-morrow.

The Assembly devoted itself mainly to third reading of bills, most of which were of no public interest.

PASSAGE OF VANDERBILT'S AMENDED UNDER-GROUND BILL.

VANDERBILT'S under-ground quick transit scheme, as amended to conform with the Governor's objections and not interfere with the Central Under-ground Charter, came up in the Assembly and passed by a vote of 90 to 24. The route of the road was given in yesterday's dispatches. Mr. SMYTH, Mr. JUDD, Mr. PELL and Mr. PRESTON offered amendments for the better protection of the rights of the people, such as compelling the Company to reimburse the City for any lands taken in the public parks or grounds, but they were all voted down. Mr. PRESTON called the attention of the House to what, he said, must have been an oversight of VANDERBILT, viz., that the City was not required to pay half the expense of the road. To remedy this evident negligence on the part of VANDERBILT'S fuglemen, he moved an amendment that the City be required to pay half the cost. Strange to say, his proposition was treated as a joke or a bit of sarcasm, and declared out of order. The nays on the passage of the bill were the following: J. H. Babcock, Bennett, Dykeman, Foot, Gregory, D. B. Hill, Judd, Kennedy, Kilian, Kingsland, Knettles, Lewis, Lott, Mackay, Moulton, Pell, Preston, Rose, Smyth, Speaker, Springsted, Strahan, Twombly, A. L. Van Dusen.

REFORM IN THE DISTRICT-ATTORNEY'S OFFICE.

Mr. STRAHAN, from the Judiciary Committee, presented the report of that Committee on the investigation into the management of the New-York District-Attorney's office. The report says that the District-Attorney is not required by law to keep any books showing the history of cases brought into the office; but that books are kept, though so loosely that the Committee was unable to get any definite information from them. They therefore recommend the passage of an act compelling the District-Attorney to keep a book of records, in which shall be entered all proceedings in cases which are necessary to give an accurate history of the case from the time of receipt of the complaint until its final disposition, together with the reasons why the case is not sent to the Grand Jury, and why they are not tried when indictments are found. The bill also requires the Clerk of General Sessions and Oyer and Terminer, in all cases where the Court suspends sentence, or orders the discharge of a prisoner on bail, to make and file with the indictment a written statement of the reasons for such action. A failure to comply with this provision is made a misdemeanor and punishable as such. The Committee say that they find nothing wrong in the office since it has been under the charge of Judge GARVIN. The bill was ordered to a third reading as reported by the Committee.

THE BROOKLYN CHARTER.

The bill amending the charter of Brooklyn passed the Assembly this morning, and was sent to the Senate for concurrence. A Conference Committee was appointed by the Assembly on the Brooklyn Health bill, consisting of MORTON, WHITE, BERRI, SMYTH and MORELEY.

THE PER DIEM QUESTION.

Attorney-General BARLOW has given his opinion that members of the Legislature can draw their regular $3 per diem from the expiration of the hundred days, under the provision of the Constitution relative to "proceedings for impeachment." He agrees with Mr. TILDEN that "proceedings" commenced from the time the first steps were taken looking toward impeachment. Controller HOPKINS differs from the Attorney-General, and has given notice to the Clerks of the Senate and Assembly that he shall not pay the $3 per diem until he has taken further counsel on the question.

JUDGE M'CUNN'S CASE.

The Judiciary Committee will make their report in the case of Judge MCCUNN to-night or to-morrow. It is the opinion of a majority of the Committee that the evidence in his case does not warrant a recommendation for impeachment, and they will simply refer the evidence to the Governor for such action as he may deem advisable.

AGREEMENT ON THE CHARTER.

The Conference Committees of the two Houses on the New-York Charter met this afternoon, and agreed to strike out the sectarian appropriation clause, and insert in lieu thereof words to the effect that "nothing herein contained shall be construed as authorizing the appropriation of any money for sectarian purposes." The report of the Conference Committees will undoubtedly be agreed to by both Houses, and the bill will be signed by the Governor, so that the people of New-York may prepare for an election under the new charter on the 31st of this month.

The New-York Quarantine Regulations—Tilden's Oyer and Terminer Bill Vetoed—A Political Veto—The Tammany Exposures Bill.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

ALBANY, May 8.—The New-York Quarantine bill was discussed at length in Committee of the Whole of the Assembly this evening. The bill makes very radical changes in the laws regulating the Quarantine, lighterage, &c., of vessels arriving at the Port of New-York. Mr. ALVORD moved to strike out the first section, with the design of killing the bill. He assumed to state by authority that Dr. VANDERPOEL, the present Health Officer, did not desire any change in the Quarantine laws, and he gave as a reason therefor that the new Health Officer wished to gain a reputation for honest administration of his office under the same system that had given rise to great abuses under his predecessors. Mr. ALBERGER, Mr. JUDD, Mr. TWOMBLY and others advocated the passage of the bill, and protested against retaining a bad system for the sake of giving any man, however high his character, an opportunity to display his honesty or glorify himself at the expense of his predecessors. Mr. FIELDS said that the bill was drawn by Commissioner BELL, whom it was proposed to remove from office. In other words, the Committee on Commerce and Navigation proposed to steal Dr. BELL'S thunder and then decapitate him. Mr. ALBERGER and Mr. JUDD both denied that Dr. BELL drew the bill or had anything to do with it. At the close of the discussion, the bill was ordered to a third reading by a vote of 59 to 41.

TWO VETOES.

The Governor this evening sent in a veto of Mr. TILDEN'S pet bill providing for the holding of Courts of Oyer and Terminer by Judges assigned by the Court of Appeals, who live outside of the district in which the offense to be tried was committed. Mr. TILDEN arrived in the Assembly Chamber just as the reading of the veto was concluded, and moved that it be laid on the table, which was carried by a vote of 53 to 50. The following is a synopsis of the reasons assigned by the Governor for the veto:

He says the bill seeks to establish a new order of things in the administration of criminal law in certain cases. It is an outgrowth, undoubtedly, of recent developments in the City of New-York, and is, no doubt, enacted with special reference to certain indictments now pending in that City; nevertheless, the bill applies in terms to the whole State, and to every judicial district and county. He then proceeds to detail the provisions of the bill and their effect, and says, for the reasons, therefore, first, that the bill is of doubtful constitutionality; second, that it is impolitic and unwise, and is unjust to the judicial officers and District-Attorneys of the several localities. I must decline to affix my signature. The Governor further discusses the bill, and says ample provision has already been made in the general statute of the State, in reference to the Judiciary, passed since the adoption of the new Judiciary article of the Constitution for extraordinary emergencies, such as this bill is claimed to meet.

Another veto was sent in this afternoon of the bill reorganizing the Brooklyn Excise Board by ousting the present Democratic officials, who act exclusively in the interest of the rum-sellers, and giving the appointment of the new Board to the Mayor and Controller, one a Democrat and the other a Republican. JACOBS made a rambling speech about a Brooklyn Ring, and induced a Republican House to vote with him to sustain this veto.

THE TAMMANY EXPOSURES.

The bill appropriating $5,000 to Mr. COPELAND for his services to the City in exposing the frauds of the Finance Department passed the Assembly this evening. It had previously passed the Senate. S.

THE ATALANTA CREW.

Favorable Criticism Upon Their Practice Performances.

How the Crew Was Received by the English Boatmen—Interesting Details of Recent Movements—The Quarters at Putney.

Criticisms by the London Press—A Favorable Impression Made.

LONDON, May 8.—The Echo of today contains a critical article upon the performances of the Atalanta boat crew of New-York, who practice daily on the Thames. The writer says: "Their performances are exceedingly good; that their action is fine, and that their time and feathering are simply perfect They are, nevertheless, somewhat deficient in dash and power, betray a disposition to hang at the finish of the stroke, and do not pick out the blades cleanly and promptly. Practice will, however, rectify these faults. The London boatmen all regard the New-Yorkers as a fine able crew, whose appearance upon the river is very showy, and elicits the admiration of spectators. A great struggle is certain on the 10th of June."

Reception of the Atalanta Boat Crew at Liverpool—Departure for Putney.

From Our Special Correspondent.

LONDON, Thursday, April 25, 1872.

The Atalanta crew arrived at Liverpool by the City of Montreal yesterday, and were warmly greeted by a number of gentlemen, among them Messrs. F. S. GULSTON, (Captain of the opposing boat,) H. H. PLAYFORD and E. WESTON, of the London Rowing Club. The Atalantas were escorted to the Washington Hotel, and very hospitably entertained. This morning at 9 o'clock, the party left for Putney in a saloon carriage of the London and North-western Railway, their boats in cases placed on truck-cars, attached to the rear of the train. Passing through the several stations on the way, considerable interest was shown by the inhabitants, who cheered lustily. Arriving at Putney about 5 o'clock, the crew went to the "Fox and Hounds" Hotel, with the proprietor of which they had previously corresponded. The boat being unpacked in the house of the London Rowing Club, was found to be much soaked and somewhat warped, and will need some attention before it can be used. The crew has had a rather rough passage, but, although considerably shaken, seem to be lively. They have created a very favorable impression here, and are much better liked than the Harvard men.

They will not remain at Putney, but probably go to Hammersmith. Will send particulars by next steamer.

From the London Daily Telegraph, April 26.

A right hearty reception was yesterday afforded to the members of the Atalanta Rowing Club, who have gallantly come across the Atlantic to row four of the London. On the arrival off the Mersey on Wednesday of the City of Montreal steamer with the American gentlemen on board, Mr. F. S. GULSTON, Mr. HERBERT PLAYFORD, and Mr. WESTON, who had been deputed by the London Club to go down to Liverpool and meet them, went out in a tug, and on the vessel's anchoring took the arrivals on board and brought them into port. Representatives of the Liverpool rowing clubs joined in doing the honors to the American four, and in escorting them to the Washington Hotel, where they remained the night. The American party consists of five gentlemen, namely, Dr. Russell Withers, Messrs. Edward Smith, Alexander Handy, T. Van Raden and Leander Waterbury. They have brought over with them a four-oared outrigger, and a single-scull outrigger, in which it is rumored that Mr. SMITH may possibly try his fortunes for the Diamonds at Henley. In some respects the present match differs from the contests that have taken place between English and American boating men of late years. The majority of these have been among professed watermen, who have rowed for money stakes. The Oxford and Harvard, though national in point of interest, was an interuniversity match; but in the contest that will take place on the 10th of June, from Putney to Mortlake, we shall have a representative four from one of the best of the American amateur rowing clubs meeting a four from one of the best, if not the very best and strongest of the English amateur rowing clubs. Both these bodies differ from the University clubs on the one hand, and from the watermen's coteries on the other. At the Universities, whether of Oxford or Harvard, men come and go, having made their mark, perhaps, as members of one of the college boating set, but ceasing from the time they leave to be available for the matches of the Universities. With the Atalanta and the London members remain for many years, and are always ready to represent and serve the club. Both consist of what we in England are obliged to call upper middle class men, and both recruit largely from "the city." Yesterday morning the crew, accompanied by their friends of the London Rowing Club, left Liverpool by the 9½ A. M. fast train for London. The London and North-western Railway Company very kindly gave the party the use of a saloon carriage, and put on a truck for the conveyance of their boats. They came along on the express to Crewe, where their carriage was detached and put on a regular train, for the greater convenience of reaching Putney, via Willesden and Kensington. All along the route the party were lionized by groups of people collected at the stopping stations, whose attention must have been attracted by the saloon carriage and the huge lines of the boat-cases on the truck. At Kensington a South-western engine took the place of the North-western, and, in charge of one of the Superintendents, the train was brought on via Clapham Junction to Putney.

The little station at head-quarters had been made quite gay for the reception of the expected strangers. Mr. THORN, the station-master, had allowed the London Club to bring down their bunting, and to deck the arrival platform with a profusion of bright flags. The Club itself was represented by a very fair muster of members in the well-known colors of their boating dress, and there was besides a full complement of the public. The special arrived at 5 o'clock. Two or three gentlemen, members of the Atalanta Club, previously in London, were present to welcome their associates. A few informal introductions were made, and the new comers were speedily made at ease among the members of the London. They were conducted to Mr. MARSHALL'S Fox and Hounds Hotel, the inn favored by the Oxford crew, and one which has been within late years enlarged to meet the requirements of parties of this kind. Dr. RUSSELL WITHERS, the stroke, a gentleman of thirty-five, is the only one of the party who presents the decided and unmistakable American type. Mr. WITHERS is a rather squarely and strongly built man, with somewhat of a seafaring style, and with every liklihood, so far as appearance goes, of being thoroughly able to stay any distance. Mr. VAN RADEN is tall, but is firmly and strongly knit, with promise of long reach and great power. Mr. LEANDER WATERBURY is the most robust-looking of the party, though scaling only the same weight as the two gentlemen already mentioned. Messrs. EDWARD SMITH and ALEXANDER HANDY are smaller and lighter men, but look very like being able to do their full share of work. A second reception awaited them at the London Rowing Club-house, where they went down early in the evening. On their arrival a salute was fired from several small pieces, and ringing cheers, again and again repeated, were given by the members of the Club and the strangers assembled. On the word given by the stroke, a responsive cheer was raised by the crew of the Atalanta, who were then conducted into the club-room, and duly pledged in the vin d'honneur.

Members of the crew, having suffered rather severely from the effects of a stormy voyage, three or four days will be allowed for recuperation before they appear on the river. The boat will require revarnishing, and it will not be until Tuesday next, at the earliest, that they will take their first pull on the Thames water.

A Lawyer's Sharp Practice.

In the Hudson County Circuit Court, yesterday, a suit was brought to recover $550 on a note drawn by HENRY DEGEN, and held by HENRY HOLTINSEN. HOLTINSEN testified that he had given MORRIS BRITZFELT, a lawyer, $550 for the note, and DEGEN, the drawer, testified that he had not, to his knowledge, made the note. It appeared that two years ago DEGEN, who cannot read English, went to BRITZFELT to get him to draw up a note for $550. BRITZFELT told him it would be better to draw the note in duplicate, which he himself did, delivering one of the notes to DEGEN, and keeping the other himself. This second note was never accounted for. The Court gave judgment to HOLTINSEN, and directed that affidavits, setting forth the facts, be made for presentation to the Supreme Court, that BRITZFELT'S name might be stricken from the roll.

ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

Second Day's Proceedings at Cleveland—Address by Gen. Burnside.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 8.—The National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic met this morning. None but members of the Society were admitted.

The Commander-in-Chief of the organization, Gen. BURNSIDE, addressed the meeting. In the course of his speech he said, during the past year he had used his best efforts to further such legislation in Congress as would benefit his comrades. He declined to speak in favor of the Bounty Land bill, because he felt that the remainder of the public lands should be kept for actual settlers, and the benefit that would be derived from such a bill would not compensate for the harm done the public. In regard to the various measures proposed to secure larger pensions for his disabled comrades, he said, "If the efforts of his comrades were concentrated on some well-considered plan to secure liberal provisions for those entitled to it, nearer justice could be secured."

Gen. BURNSIDE congratulated the encampment on the general healthy condition of the Order, and hoped the coming year would prove more prosperous. He said they were not assembled to consult as to what is best for their own personal interests nor as to what is most conducive to the success of any political party, but as the representatives of an organization composed of the survivors of the struggle made by the loyal people of our country for the preservation of our National Government. While they should declare themselves loyalists in the extreme, they should declare charity toward their late enemies in the field who have now or may hereafter recognize the great wrong they have done our country, and that he fully indorsed the theory of forgiving those who fought against us, and granting them all the amnesty which Congress may deem right and proper; but he found it more difficult to forgive those men in the North who had all the light before them, who, when their comrades were in the field risking everything, sat in safe quarters at home, and either croaked at our inefficiency, or shivered with fear to such an extent as to make them ask for compromise.

This evening the reunion closed with a grand banquet at the Central Rink. The building was handsomely decorated with flags and banners. Between 3,000 and 4,000 guests sat down to the tables. A large number of ladies and gentlemen occupied the galleries.

Organization of a Cavalry Society.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 8.—The business meeting of the Society of the Cavalry Corps of the Armies of the United States was held at 12½ o'clock. Gen. SHERIDAN, the President, on taking the chair expressed his pleasure at meeting so many veteran troops, and hoped the meeting would give itself to the work of effecting a permanent organization. Some changes in the name and constitution seemed necessary, and the committee who had been charged with the work were preparing a report on the subject. The Committee reported the amended constitution, which, after discussion, was adopted. The constitution declares that the Society shall be known as the "Society of the Cavalry Corps of the Army of the Potomac and of the Cavalry of the Armies of the United States." It provides that any honorably discharged officer or soldier who at any time served in said calvary shall be entitled to membership, and all officers and men who served in the cavalry of the Shenandoah are considered as belonging to the society. Some dissatisfaction was expressed by the Western members at the course of the Society in the matter, and several left the meeting.

Laws to Maintain Esprit de Corps Among Physicians.

PHILADELPHIA, May 8.—At the session of the American Medical Association, a report was read by Dr. WEATHERBY, of Alabama, from the Committee on Medical Education, suggesting that no more charters be granted for medical colleges which do not adopt the plan for education indorsed by this Association, and that Legislatures be asked to revoke all charters for colleges not adopting the plan of the Association, and that no delegates be admitted from institutions refusing to adopt such plan. The report alluded to the rivalry beeween colleges, inducing some to lower charges and give degrees to men totally unfit for the duties of a physician.

Dr. FINDLAY offered a resolution that physicians attending families by contract or by the year, or who bid for practice at less rates than the regular graduates, shall be classed among irregular practitioners. Adopted.

The New-York and New-Haven Railroad—Action of the Connecticut Legislature.

NEW-HAVEN, May 8.—On the motion of Mr. JOHN M. HALL, Chairman of the Committee on Railroads, the House by a vote of nearly two to one laid upon the table a resolution calling upon the Governor for a copy of his recent letter to the Governor of the State of New-York, remonstrating against the proposed legislation of that State to reduce the fares on that part of the New-York and New-Haven Railroad which lies in the State of New-York, and his reasons for such remonstrance.

The reason given by Mr. HALL for making the motion, was that "it might not be courteous to the Governor for the House to pass the resolution!" From this may be inferred the prospect of any bill passing our Legislature to reduce the fares on that road.

City Election in Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 8.—The municipal election today resulted in the re-election of Mayor THOMAS A. DOYLE, Republican, who received 2,204 votes, while the Democratic candidate received 980. There were sharp local contests in the wards. Six of the nine Aldermen elected are opposed to granting licenses to sell intoxicating drinks, reversing the policy of the past two years in this regard.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 8.—The Republican, of this city, has returns from 162 towns, of which 53 are in favor of licensing the sale of ale, beer, &c., and 109 in favor of prohibition.

A Case of Forgery.

ELIJAH P. SHEDDEN, a young man engaged in the flour and feed business at No. 303 Weststreet, was held for trial at Jefferson Market, yesterday, by Justice Cox, on a charge of forgery. The complaint was made by Mr. HORACE DENNETT, Superintendent of the Knickerbocker Ice Company, who said that he gave SHEDDEN $1,500 for a note for that amount drawn by Mr. ELIJAH SHEDDEN, of New-Jersey, the uncle of the prisoner. When the note became due, on its being presented to Mr. ELIJAH SHEDDEN, he pronounced it a forgery. Mr. ELIJAH SHEDDEN, uncle of the prisoner, was held in $1,000 bail as a witness.

Unfriendliness of the Pope to the German Government.

INDIA.

Severe Floods and Great Destruction of Life and Property.

LONDON, May 8.—A telegram from Bombay brings intelligence of most disastrous floods in the southern part of British India. The town of Vellore, in the Presidency of Madras, has suffered terribly, and many of the inhabitants have been drowned. The number of lives lost is given at one thousand. Fifteen thousand inhabitants of the town have lost everything they possessed, the water having washed away their houses and left them in a perfectly destitute condition.

The dispatch of yesterday stating that there had been a flood in Melbourne, whereby 400 persons were drowned, is an error. It undoubtedly referred to the above-mentioned disaster.

Don Carlos Still Actively Waging War—Progress of Hostilities—Contradictory Reports.

PARIS, May 8.—The Legitimist journals here insist that the battle of Oroquieta was not decisive of the fate of the Carlist rising. Don CARLOS writes on the 6th to the Duchess of MADRID that the prospects are excellent, that he could announce good news, but refrains from prudential motives.

The Carlist organs deny that RODA or any other leader has returned to France, and assert that the insurrectionary forces are masters of all Biscay and important points in Guipuzcoa, and hold possession of the railway between Miranda and Irun; that bands under CASTELLO and ALEGRE are active in the Catalonian provinces, and others are hovering on the borders of Ternel and Tarragona.

MADRID, May 8—Evening.—Official dispatches from the North state that the insurgents have disappeared from Guipuzcoa, and only a small band remains in the Province of Saragossa.

Of the Carlist forces in Navarre, 429 have surrendered to the Government troops, and the remainder have dispersed.

The Governor of Pampeluna telegraphs to the Minister of War that Don CARLOS recrossed the frontier, accompanied only by a priest, and is now in France.

PARIS, May 8—Evening.—The latest news received here by the friends of Don CARLOS is that be has from 7,000 to 8,000 men in Biscay, well armed and well supplied with provisions and munitions. ELIS commands the Carlist forces in Navarre, and TRISTANY those in Catalonia.

FRANCE.

Report of the Committee on Capitulation—The Hotel de Ville to be Rebuilt.

PARIS, May 8.—The speech of the Duke D'AUDIFFRET-PASQUIER in the National Assembly on Saturday, wherein he pointed out the abuses practiced upon the army by the contractors, has created a great sensation in Government circles. M. ROUHER has given notice that he will question the Government on the 15th inst. relative to the measures which have been taken to reform the alleged abuses. The Committee on War Contracts of the Assembly have tendered the Duke D'AUDIFFRET-PASQUIER a banquet, which will take place on Monday next.

Marshal BAZAINE has taken up his residence at Versailles, where he holds himself ready for whatever disposition the Government may see fit to make of his case. It is probable that he will be arrested soon.

The Commission on Capitulations, in their report, praise the Commandant of Pfalsbourg for his brave and obstinate defense of that fortress, and recommend that he be decorated with the cross of the Legion of Honor. They also exonerate the commander of Neubreisach of all blame for the capitulation of that place.

A review of the troops stationed in and around Paris is announced to take place on the 19th inst.

The Municipal Council of Paris has resolved to rebuild the Hotel de Ville, which was destroyed by the Communists. The new structure will cost 6,750,000 francs.

PARIS, May 8—Evening.—Marshal BAZAINE surrendered himself on Tuesday night to stand his trial by Court-martial.

In the Assembly today Gen. CHANZY moved that the preamble of the bill constituting the Court-martial be amended so as to recite that "this Court is assembled on the demand of the Commission of Capitulations." The preamble as submitted by the Government states that the Court-martial is called on the demand of Marshal BAZAINE. The Minister of War, Gen. CISSEY, opposed the amendment, but it was unanimously adopted by the Assembly. It is believed that this vote will force Gen. CISSEY to resign.

The Emperor and Bismarck in Summer Quarters—Unfriendliness of the Pope.

BERLIN, May 8.—The Emperor WILLIAM will soon go to Ems to drink the waters.

Prince BISMARCK retires to his estates, and will abstain from active participation in affairs for several months.

The Provincial Correspondenz reports that the Pope declines to receive Prince HOHENLOHE as Ambassador from Germany, and pronounces the action of the Holy Father a striking evidence of his want of appreciation of Germany's friendliness and disposition to conciliate.

Negotiation of Forged Drafts—The Chester Races—Inveresk the Winner.

LONDON, May 8.—The city papers this afternoon announce that a number of forged drafts, purporting to have been drawn by LOWELL & NEPHEW, of Manchester, on the Union Bank of London, which were negotiated in the United States, have made their appearance here.

The London papers generally, in their articles upon the American Presidential question, assert that the re-election of President GRANT is doubtful if he persists in keeping the claims for indirect damages before the Geneva Tribunal of Arbitration for adjudication.

In the Chester races today, the Tradesmen's Plate (the Chester Cup) was won by WM. W. NICHOLS' br. c. Inveresk, with Soucar second and Napolitain third. Fourteen ran. Soucar was the favorite at the start, the betting being 13 to 1 against Inveresk, 6 to 1 against Soucar, and 33 to 1 against Napolitain. W. CHALONER was the jockey of the winner. The following is the summary of the race:

The Tradesmen's Plate of 300 sovereigns, in specie, added to a Handicap Sweepstakes of 25 sovereigns each; New Cup Course, about 2¼ miles, (108 subscribers:)

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Drs. Lanahan and Slicer Want Fair Play From the Christian Advocate—The Bishops' Address—Presentation of Foreign Delegates.

Long before 9 o'clock the dress circle and first tier were crowded with visitors, of whom a very large proportion were ladies. The parquet was reserved for the delegates, and the stage was occupied by the Bishops, the Secretaries and the reporters of the Christian Advocate, who, as representatives of the great Methodist organ, were allowed that high privilege. Order was called at 9 precisely, and after the usual religious exercises the business of the day commenced.

The Secretary read the minutes of Tuesday's meeting, and on the question as to their adoption, Dr. SMART pointed out a technical inaccuracy, upon which there was considerable debate. They were then approved.

Dr. LANAHAN complained that his report of the Book Concern had been omitted from the Daily Christian Advocate, and he certainly thought this was unfair. He went down to the printing-house on Tuesday, suspecting something of this, and was told that it would not be printed until the answer had been prepared for it. This was the way he had been treated two years ago—

Here he was interrupted by the presiding Bishop, who said that the affairs of two years ago were out of order.

Dr. SLICER, of the Baltimore delegation, who had presented the minority report, rose to say that a great deal of his report had also been omitted. He wanted the Methodist public to learn all the facts, so that the judgment in this matter might come from them. And he wanted fair play and no favor. He would like to have from the Secretary an explanation of this, and he wished to know if his report was to be served like Dr. LANAHAN'S.

The Secretary said that he had just been informed by a reporter of the Daily Christian Advocate that the papers of the minority report had come so late into his hands that he could not get it into that issue of the paper. And he would further state that as he (the Secretary) had but one copy, and did not feel free to let that go out of his hands, there was an unavoidable delay.

Dr. SLICER rose, laughing, and replied: "You can hardly make that excuse for Dr. LANAHAN'S report, because he had wisely provided himself with copies, and distributed them among the brethren." The subject was then dropped, and the Bishops' address was read. It was highly conservative in spirit, and spoke with disapproval of those who, having power, will not permit it to remain dormant until it could be used to the benefit of the Church, but insist on exercising it at once because they have it. The Book Concern was mentioned only incidentally in connection with sundry missions, and the readers were referred for details to the reports of the officials, which the Bishops trusted would be found satisfactory. It exhorted the brethren to cherish the free institutions bequeathed to them by their ancestors, and recommended a religious observance by the Methodists, as a church, of the centenary of the Republic in 1876. It reminded them that from five to eight Bishops would have to be chosen, and wound up with a fervent prayer for the continued success of Methodism.

Brother HESTER moved that the various parts touched upon in the address should be referred to the appropriate committees, and that so much of it as referred to the approaching centenary should be referred to a select committee of nine, which was adopted.

Dr. NUTT, of Indiana, moved that 1,000 copies of the address should be printed in pamphlet form for the delegates.

Dr. SLICER amended by proposing 2,000, and this was carried.

Drs. WISEMAN and PUNSHON, of the English Wesleyan Conference, visitors to the American General Conference, were then introduced, and the Secretary read a letter from the Methodists of England, which, though lengthy, was extremely interesting, from the frankness with which their difficulties were stated and their triumphs rejoiced in. There was a brief allusion to the troubles between the two countries, but it expressed no opinion, and spoke only of the religious side of the matter.

At the conclusion of the address Dr. WISEMAN addressed the Conference. He described the standing of Methodism in England, and the advances it had made during the last four years. With regard to Sunday-schools, though, they by no means occupied the same position in England as in America—yet year by year the American idea was gaining ground in the churches, and the number of scholars had accordingly become very much greater. In the matter of public schools the experiments recently set on foot were too new for him to state anything in regard to them. It was something, at least, that the experiment had been tried. It was something, too, that in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge nonconformists were now admitted. The young men of Methodism now labored under no disadvantages of any kind at these colleges, but were precisely on the same footing as other young men. He regretted that in spite of the many marks of progress with which the Lord had blessed them in new schools, new churches, new congregations, new missions, he was obliged faithfully to confess that the increase in church membership was very small, and bore no proportion to the increase in other things. He wound up his address by thanking the Conference for the sympathy with which they had listened to his few feeble words.

Dr. PUNSHON then spoke with great eloquence and humor of the present estimation in which Methodism was held in England, contrasting it forcibly with what it had been considered twenty years ago. He subsequently pointed out that though the ancient principles were held fast, there was a greater flexibility of action, a greater boldness in the methods of doing good. Among these were the Children's Refuges, recently instituted, on the plan of those in Hamburg. He was most fervidly applauded at the close of his really wonderful address.

The delegate from the Presbyterian General Assembly held at Chicago, Dr. HOWARD CROSBY, Chancellor of the University of New-York City, was then introduced, and made a brief address, which was most warmly received. It contained some excellent touches upon the advantages which the Churches had mutually received from the sincere regard and profound respect which they had learned to feel for each other.

At its conclusion, Rev. WM. MCKAY, delegate from the Irish Conference, was introduced, and the Secretary, Mr. HARRIS, read a letter handed in by Mr. MCKAY. This referred at some length to the working of the Disendowment bill, which was considered by the Irish Methodists as increasing their field of usefulness and their responsibilities also. From their poverty, however, they greatly feared that they would not be able to meet these responsibilities as they ought. The donation of $5,000 from the generous American Conference was most seasonable, and enabled them to send numerous open-air preachers into the field.

After the reading of this document, Rev. W. MCKAY came forward and addressed the Conference, giving an interesting description of the Irish schools and the conflict which was forced upon them by the Roman Catholic hierarchy on that point.

Brother HUNT then introduced the following delegates from foreign Conventions: Rev. Dr. SANDERSON, from Canada; Rev. Dr. POPE, Wesleyan Conference of Eastern British America; Rev. ALEXANDER SUTHERLAND, from Canada; Rev. Drs. LENT and WILLIAMS, from the Old Methodist Church of America, and Rev. Mr. BATEMAN, from the Congregationalist Union. They were requested to take seats upon the platform, with the understanding that they should be heard on a more convenient opportunity. The Conference then adjourned until 9 o'clock today.

After the adjournment the doxology was sung by all the persons present, and a benediction was pronounced by Dr. LUKE A. WISEMAN, one of the British delegates. The members of the Conference were then photographed on the stoop of the Mercantile Library opposite.

THE VAN SAUN FORGERY CASE.

Continuation of the Examination Yesterday—Important Testimony of the Bank Teller.

The further examination of ALBERT VAN SAUN, charged with forging a check for over $50,000, was continued yesterday morning in the Tombs Police Court, before Justice DOWLING. Assistant District-Attorney SULLIVAN appeared for the prosecution, and H. L. CLINTON and A. W. LENNEY for the defense. The first witness called was ALFRED A. TIMPSON, the paying teller of the Continental National Bank, who testified that VAN SAUN had introduced Mr. HARRIS to the officers of the bank, and the signatures of HARRIS and VAN SAUN were left with witness; an account was them opened, and checks drawn by VAN SAUN in the name of C. M. HARRIS & CO. Witness identified a check presented by VAN SAUN on the 29th August last.

Mr. SULLIVAN said that this check was presented on the same day, but before the forged check was presented, in order that the prisoner might counterfeit the certification on any other check, if he so chose. Witness, in continuation, said that on the 29th of August VAN SAUN presented the check in question, No. 7,461, for $42 14, for certification, which witness certified in the usual manner; the check was to the order of PALMER & KENDAL; that check came through the bank on the 1st of September, and was then in its present condition; another check was presented to him on the same day by F. H. SMITH; it was drawn by C. M. HARRIS & Co.; it had on its face a certification which he pronounced a forgery; SMITH took the check away, and witness saw it again on the same day, about two hours afterward; it was brought to the bank, he thinks, by Mr. SMITH, and he compared it with his certifying-book and found that the number on the check had no number opposite to it on the book; he could not give the amount of the check, but it was in the neighborhood of $56,000; it was drawn to the order of F. H. SMITH or F. H. SMITH Jr.; he knows by his certification book that there was no such amount or anything like it certified to C. M. HARRIS & Co. on that day; he has not seen the check since. The witness was cross-examined by Mr. CLINTON, but nothing material was elicited.

WM. A. POST was next examined. He said he was a bank clerk and that his mother is the defendant's aunt. He identified a paper handed to him by Mr. SULLIVAN, and said he had seen it at his mother's residence. The paper referred to is as follows:

> In consideration of $1 and other good and valuable consideration this day by me received from Mrs. LAVINIA POST, I hereby assign to her a certain check for fifty-six thousand three hundred and seventy-five, dated Aug. 29, 1871, made by C. M. HARRIS & Co. on the Continental National Bank, and all pecuniary claim against any and all persons upon or by reason of the same.
>
> Dated NEW-YORK, Nov. 9, 1871.
>
> F. H. SMITH. [Seal.]
>
> Witness: E. S. MILLS.
> [Stamp.]

The words in italics appear to be written in a different hand.

Witness was present when Mr. PARSONS requested witness' mother to return the check to him, but she did not do so.

The case was then adjourned.

THE TURF.

Trotting at the Prospect Park Fair Grounds.

A sweepstakes trot of $300 came off yesterday at the Prospect Park Fair Grounds between the gray gelding White Cloud, the bay gelding Humpty Dumpty and the black gelding James Gardner. Although the day was fine, the attendance of the sporting fraternity was meagre. Several members of the Association were present, and many ladies graced the porch of the club-house. White Cloud won the race in four heats, and was the favorite in the betting.

FIRST HEAT.—Gardner went away in the lead, Humpty Dumpty second, and White Cloud third. Going round the turn White Cloud went to the front, and led three lengths at the quarter, and broke into a run to the half-mile pole. Gardner, trotting steadily, gained on him, but on the lower turn the white horse again assumed the lead, and won the heat by a length and a half, Humpty Dumpty distanced. The heat was given to Gardner in consequence of White Cloud's running. Time—2:48.

SECOND HEAT.—White Cloud sold for $10 and Gardner for $7. On the first score they went away together, but on the turn White went to the front, and lead two lengths at the quarter-pole. On the backstretch White Cloud trotted fast, and led four lengths at the half-mile pole. He maintained his lead all the way round, and won the heat easily by three lengths. Time—2:44¾.

THIRD HEAT.—On the first score they received the word together. On the turn, however, White Cloud rushed away and passed the quarter pole four lengths in front. On the backstretch he opened the gap and led past the half-mile pole six lengths, and finally won the heat by that distance easily. Time—2:46¾.

FOURTH HEAT.—On the second attempt they were away on even terms, but on the turn White Cloud went to the front, and led three lengths at the quarter-pole, and was five lengths ahead at the half. Coming up the stretch White Cloud took it easy, and allowed Gardner to close upon him, the former winning the heat and race by a half length only in 2:47½.

Recorder Hackett on Concealed Weapons.

In the Court of General Sessions, yesterday, before Recorder HACKETT, JOHN CORCORAN was arraigned on a charge of having fired a pistol-shot at ISAAC SIMPSON on the 4th of April last. The jury was unable to agree, and was discharged. In addressing the Court for the prosecution the Assistant District-Attorney called attention to the fact that an act was recently passed in the Legislature forbidding the carrying of a pistol, but it had not yet received the Governor's signature. The Recorder regretted that such was the fact. He had always carried a revolver, and he believed the effect of the present enactment would be to render honest men defenseless before the 20,000 desperadoes in this City, who would arm themselves notwithstanding the will of the Legislature.

Motion to Discharge House of Refuge Boys.

WM. BLOOD and JAS. KENNEDY, both lads under sixteen, the former of whom was committed on conviction of larceny by Justice DOWLING, and the latter for the same crime by Justice EAMES, of Brooklyn, were brought before Judge INGRAHAM, in Supreme Court Chambers, yesterday, and their discharge asked for from the House of Refuge. The motion for the prisoners' discharge was made on the ground that BLOOD was convicted by Special Sessions while unlawfully constituted, and that KENNEDY'S commitment was defective. Counsel for the boy KENNEDY consented to withdraw the writ, admitting the commitment to be good; and in the case of BLOOD, an order was made discharging him from the House of Refuge and remanding him to the City Prison.

THE HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

The Condition of the Streets—The Harlem Nuisance—The Impure Condition of the Croton Water.

The Board of Health met as usual, yesterday, President BOSWORTH in the chair. A one-story frame extension in the rear of No. 259 William-street, was ordered to be vacated as a human habitation, the place being reported as dangerous to life and detrimental to health. A report was received in relation to the filthy condition of the slaughter-houses Nos. 235 and 237, and 224 and 226 East Forty-fifth-street, and the Board ordered the slaughtering to be discontinued at the above named numbers.

Dr. MOREAU MORRIS, Sanitary Inspector, presented a report in regard to the condition of the streets, which substantially corroborates the accounts of their filthiness, published in these columns from time to time. The document, which contains the result of a careful inspection, in compliance with a former resolution of the Board, specifies the various stages of uncleanliness in certain sections of the City, and adds that, as a general rule, the streets in the vicinity of the rivers are in a very poor condition. The report condemns the present system of street-cleaning as being totally insufficient for the sanitary requirements of the whole Metropolis. Speaking of the pavements, the Inspector says:

> "That of the faulty and in many places really dangerous condition of the old cobble-stone pavements, it is but too evident that the worn-out, displaced old cobble-stone and rotten wooden pavements have very much to do with this unsanitary and unhealthy condition, for the rule was almost without an exception that streets and avenues so paved were those most filthy. From the fact of the irregular system of collecting ashes and garbage by the contractor, has followed the almost universal neglect and violation of civil and sanitary laws in the throwing into the public streets of every kind of refuse and house filth, thus causing a seeming indifference to the public health.
> With decomposing animal and vegetable refuse constantly present in the gutters, giving off poisonous gases, or with impalpable clouds of street-dust penetrating our lungs, what better means can be employed, it may be asked, to invite epidemics and endemics, or cause pestilences to flourish? As sanitarians and guardians of public health, these conditions cannot but cause anxiety and stimulate us to renewed exertions, to place the City in a better sanitary condition.

Judge BOSWORTH suggested that an order be entered directing the street-cleaning contractor to thoroughly clean every paved street, lane and alley within the City, according to the terms of the contract, within a week from this date, and to remove daily all ashes, garbage and other filth. This was adopted.

Commissioner MANIERRE offered a resolution that all permits for keeping cows, pigs and goats, within the City limits, be revoked. Referred to the Sanitary Committee.

Commissioner VAN NORT sent a communication to the Board setting forth that the drainage of the vacant lots from Seventy-fourth to Eighty-fourth streets, and from First to Fifth avenues, would be soon commenced, and asked that the surface of the drained lots should be thoroughly disinfected. The City Sanitary Inspector said that the cost would probably be $240 for the whole work. The matter was referred.

Prof. CHANDLER, the chemist of the Board, was directed to make a thorough analysis of the Croton water, and to make a full report in regard to its present impure condition to the next meeting of the Board.

Commissioner MANIERRE stated that if public-spirited citizens desired the streets properly and thoroughly cleaned within the next thirty days, they could achieve the object by furnishing the Board with the funds necessary for the work. He, therefore, asked for liberal contributions, but it was lost by the following vote: Yeas—MANIERRE, BARR, MULALLY. Nays—BOSWORTH, CECARINO, GROSS, SMITH.

The City Sanitary Inspector was directed to make an inspection of the manure dumps at the foot of West Thirty-sixth to Thirty-eighth streets, and East Forty-fifth to Forty-seventh streets, and report to the Board on their condition at a special meeting to be held on Friday next at 2 P. M.

Mr. HENRY P. MCGOWAN appeared before the Board at the head of a committee of residents of Yorkville and Harlem, and presented a petition, signed by 1,100 residents of the upper part of the island, protesting against the continued dumping of dirt by the street contractor in the open lots extending from Ninetieth to One Hundred and Sixth-street, along the East and Harlem Rivers.

On motion of Mr. MANIERRE, the Board of Police were requested to station policemen at the grounds indicated, to arrest every person found dumping dirt of any kind on the lots. The City Sanitary Inspector was also directed to make a thorough inspection of the nuisance, and report at the special meeting of the Board on Friday.

Dr. MOREAU MORRIS, City Sanitary Inspector, presented the following comparative statement of contagious diseases reported to his bureau for the two weeks ending May 4, 1872:

Week ending April 27—Typhus fever, 5; typhoid fever, 11; scarlet fever, 90; measles, 38; diphtheria, 8; small-pox, 68.

Week ending May 4—Typhus fever, 1; typhoid fever, 12; scarlet fever, 106; measles, 56; diphtheria, 18; small-pox, 91.

Among the small-pox cases occurring during the past week twenty-four were found who had never been vaccinated, whose ages ranged from twenty-four days to thirty-one years.

The Sanitary Committee report that sixty-four cases of small-pox were removed to the Hospital during the week, and that 2,183 vaccinations were performed.

The Attorney reports as follows: Number of actions commenced for non-compliance with orders or violations of health laws or ordinances, 10; number of judgments obtained in pending actions, 14; number of actions discontinued upon evidence of abatement of all cause of complaint, 40; number of complaints by inspectors examined, and form of order indorsed thereon, 373; number of such complaints examined and returned for additional examination and report, 39.

The Register of Records reports as follows: During the past week there were recorded 667 deaths, being 29 less than for the previous week, and 159 less than for the corresponding period of the past year. Zymotic diseases occasioned 204 deaths; constitutional, 142; local, 246; developmental, 41, and violent causes, 34. The fatal cases of small-pox increased from 29 to 36, those of measles from 10 to 15, and those of cerebro-spinal meningitis from 40 to 42. The mortality of scarlatina declined from 30 to 21; of diphtheria and croup together, from 20 to 16; of whooping cough, from 21 to 12; of typhus fever, from 3 to 1; of typhoid fever, from 6 to 5; of remittent fever, from 4 to 3, and of diarrheal diseases, from 36 to 29. There were 3 deaths by intermittent fever, and 3 by puerperal fever. The deaths by phthisis pulmonalis decreased from 102 to 89, and those by the local respiratory affections increased from 99 to 101.

The City Sanitary Inspector reports the slaughter-houses of the City as being in good sanitary condition.

The Captain of the Sanitary Company of Police reports the following as the number of pounds of meat, fish, &c., seized and confiscated as unfit for human food: Sheep, 3; hogs, 8; veal, ("carcass,") 2; veal, ("bob,") 31; veal, ("cut,") 225 pounds; poultry, 56 pounds; beef, 80 pounds; corned beef, 25 pounds, and fish, 1,920 pounds.

Meeting of the Board of Examiners of Teachers.

The Board of Examiners appointed under the By-law of April 24, composed of Messrs. NATHANIEL SANDS, WM. WOOD, ALEX. J. WELSH, DAVID B. SCOTT and THOMAS HUNTER, on the 3d inst. adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Board of Examiners the resolution of the Department of Public Instruction under which said Board was appointed, does not propose that principals, vice-principals or assistant teachers shall be examined in those studies in which they have already passed a satisfactory examination, but that the inquiry of said Board shall be confined to the investigation of such cases as may be brought to its notice, or that may seem to be suitable objects of inquiry, to determine how far the duties of class instruction or school management have been carefully performed to the best interests of the public.

The object of the investigation, in the judgment of the Board, is to enable the Board of Public Instruction to make a proper discrimination in favor of meritorious teachers.

On motion of Mr. Lewis, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Department of Public Instruction tenders to J. W. ENGLAND, Esq., this expression of its sincere regret that his removal from the City necessitates his resignation as a member of this Board, the Department losing thereby an indefatigable and earnest friend of popular education.

A complaint was received from the City Superintendent against the Principal of Grammar School No. 35, for having introduced into the highest class of his school studies not authorized by the by-laws, thereby causing injury to the other schools by diminishing the number of scholars in other schools, the impression having gone abroad that a higher course of studies was taught in No. 35 than in other schools. The complaint was referred to the Committee on By-laws.

On motion of the Finance Committee, the sum of $1 500 was appropriated from the reserve fund, to enable them to liquidate certain urgent claims for books.

The sum of $500 was appropriated for the payment of a claim of A. R. LAWRENCE for legal services to the Board.

The Trustees of the Eleventh Ward reported that they had made the following awards of contracts for new school building No. 22, corner Sheriff and Stanton streets, heating apparatus to GILLIES & GEHEGAN for $8,080; furniture to NATHANIEL JOHNSON for $9,987. The amounts required for these contracts were appropriated.

Funeral of Daniel S. Schanck.

The funeral of DANIEL S. SCHANCK took place at his late residence, No. 237 Madison-avenue, yesterday afternoon. It was largely attended by the relatives and friends of the family. The members of the Board of Trade of Window-glass Importers, having passed a resolution closing their places of business for the day out of respect to the memory of the deceased, were all in attendance. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. THOMAS P. HASTINGS. The casket containing the remains was beautifully decorated with exotics, whose fragrance filled the apartment. Deceased was interred at Green-Wood.

WEDNESDAY, May 8—P. M.

The offers made at the Treasury today to sell $2,000,000 or more United States 5-20s to the Sinking Fund, amounted to $7,859,850. The Secretary of the Treasury telegraphed that he would buy $4,000,000 of these offers, being at or below the price of Gold at the moment. This large purchase increases the supply of currency on the Street, and thereby contributes to the steadiness of the Money market.

The sales of gold for the early part of the day were at 113⅞ ⅌ cent., but about 2 o'clock the demand increased in the Gold Room and the bidding rate advanced rapidly to 114 ⅌ cent. The explanation of the wire was that less favorable Cable telegrams were coming over from London in regard to the loss of Bullion by the Bank of England, and the reports in this direction caused the Stock speculation at the Stock Exchange to weaken off at the close of the day. The story of the Bank of England is at least twenty-four hours in advance of the regular weekly report of the Bank on Thursday.

The Public Funds, as a rule, are scarcely up to the market value of Gold, and hence the extra offering of 5-20 Bonds to the Sinking Fund, as above noted. The offerings at the counters of the great dealers in the Public Funds were somewhat larger than last week, and the moderate accumulation of 5-20 Stock offered on the market undoubtedly induced the liberal proposals to the Treasury this morning.

The shipments of American Gold Coin today amounted to $550,000. The export demand of the week was partly anticipated yesterday by several Cable transfers, amounting, in the aggregate, to $1,000,000, at a fraction under 110¼ ⅌ cent., for account of the Erie Company, on loans recently arranged in London. The sales of Exchange on London today were chiefly at 109⅝ ⅌ cent. 60 days, and 110⅛ ⅌ cent. short sight.

The Stock Exchange speculation in the New-York and Western Roads and in Western Telegraph and Pacific Mail was again active today, but not so strong at the close, nor the transactions through the day so large as on Tuesday. The heaviest operations were in Pacific Mail, from 76 down to 74 ⅌ cent., on various rumors for and against the ultimate success of the Congressional subsidy and the amendment of the charter at Albany. The short interest in the Stock is so heavy and at such large differences in price from the current figures, that we have reason to suppose that extra influences will be brought to bear at both Washington and Albany. There is said to be an Anti-Pacific Ring at work before Congress, while the great Bears in the Stock in Wall-street have sent one or more distinguished Democratic members of the New-York Bar to Albany to plead before Gov. HOFFMAN against his approval of the bill which has passed the Legislature authorizing a reduction of the Pacific Mail Capital. It is probable that both hostile schemes against the Company may succeed, though it will by no means follow that the Bears in the Stock will be suffered thereby to profit very largely in the sequel of the speculation. This Afternoon they seemed to have the advantage by 1½@2 ⅌ cent. as compared with the opening sales of the morning. The Railroads reversed the advancing order of yesterday, and without falling to the lowest prices of Monday, they were decidedly weak after 2 o'clock, and partly, it is understood, on London and Washington telegrams indicating an unsettled feeling on the Washington Treaty, and the prospect of a higher rate of interest at the Bank of England. The same cause, while stiffening the price of Gold, made the Public Funds close strong, which would denote no serious effect on American Stocks in the London market.

At 5 o'clock P. M. the Gold Room was firm at 114@114⅛ ⅌ cent. Exchange firm at 109⅝@109⅞ ⅌ cent. The Railroads and Telegraph and Pacific Mail Stocks closed as follows, as compared with Tuesday night.

The offerings of Money to the Stock Brokers today were quite equal to the demand at 7 ⅌ cent. To-morrow the Treasury will pay out four and a half millions in Currency in payment of the $4,000,000 United States 5-20s bought for the Sinking Fund today:

BANKING AND FINANCIAL.

THE 7.30 LOAN.

The Northern Pacific 7.30 Gold Bonds are issued in denominations of $100 to $1,000 Coupon, and $100 to $10,000 Registered, have thirty years to run, bear interest 7.30 per cent. in Gold, and are exempt from United States tax to the holder.

They are secured by a First and only Mortgage upon the Railroad, its franchises, earnings, and all the lands and property possessed by the Company.

These bonds are now selling at par and accrued interest in currency, and with their ample security and high rate of interest, we believe there is no investment accessible to the people which is more profitable or safe. They furnish to the public an investment security which combines the ready negotiability, the convenience and high credit of a first-class Railroad Bond, with the solidity and safety of a Real Estate Mortgage on land worth at least twice the amount loaned.

The Sequel to a Strange Story.

On Tuesday last, JAMES SMITH, a young man of twenty-two, was brought up at Jefferson Market Police Court on a charge of assaulting one ELIZA BROWNELL, or SMITH, keeper of a disreputable house in Greene-street. On that occasion the prisoner's father appeared as bail for his son, and made the extraordinary statement about the marrying propensities of the complainant, which was published in the TIMES of yesterday. About noon yesterday young SMITH, who had been drinking heavily, went to the house No. 238 Greene-street, kept by the woman BROWNELL, or SMITH, and pushing past the servant who opened the door, went up-stairs to the first landing, where the woman BROWNELL was leaning over the bannisters. Here he drew a revolver, and said to her, "LIZZIE, ain't you going to speak to me?" She caught the pistol and turned it aside. In doing so she fell down the flight of stairs. SMITH followed quickly. She regained her feet, and rushing through the hall opened the front door and was making her escape into the street, when SMITH caught her by the arm and dragged her back into the hall. In the struggle the pistol was discharged, and the woman fell dangerously wounded. SMITH rushed into Greene-street, where he was arrested. He was subsequently arraigned at Jefferson Market, but in the absence of counsel, declined to say anything further than merely deny shooting the woman.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

Before Judge Shipman.

Olga de Mutialia Freteff vs. The New-York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company.—The hearing of this case, for the recovery of $10,000, the amount of laces, the property of the plaintiff, alleged to have been stolen while in the possession of the defendants, was resumed yesterday. Depositions in French and Russian were offered in evidence, but were rejected on the ground that the law of the United States Courts required that they should be in English. Evidence was given of the rank of the plaintiff, establishing her right to the possession of these goods. The case has not yet terminated.

SUPERIOR COURT—TRIAL TERM—PART II—MAY 8.

Before Judge Friedman and a Jury.

LIABILITY OF PROPERTY-OWNERS FOR INJURIES TO PEDESTRIANS.

William K. Clare vs. The National City Bank.—This case was brought to recover damages for a personal injury. It was claimed on the part of the plaintiff, and he offered testimony tending to show that on the 25th of March, 1868, about 2½ o'clock P. M., while he was passing defendant's building, in Wall-street, which was undergoing repairs, a board fell from a window of the building and struck plaintiff on the head, causing injuries which confined him to his house and kept him from his business for a considerable length of time. Verdict for plaintiff for $1,250.

Luther R. Marsh and James S. Stearns for plaintiff; William H. Arnoux for defendant.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS—MAY 8.

Before Judge Ingraham.

DIVORCE—AN ALLEGED ALBANY MORMON.

Emma E. Hart vs. Thomas Hart.—This is an action by the wife to obtain a decree of divorce against the defendant, her husband. Plaintiff swears in her complaint that the defendant, who was married to her, in Albany, in 1863, in 1869 married another woman, who was ignorant of his being a married man. The case came before the Court now on a motion to refer the case, and for an attachment against the defendant for failure to pay alimony in pursuance of a previous order of the Court.

The Court granted an order directing defendant to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt, and reserved decision on the motion for reference until the return day of the order to show cause against attachment.

Charles S. Spencer for plaintiff; John M. Nelson for defendant.

The Society for the Suppression of Obscene Literature.

The Society for the Suppression of Obscene Literature was organized last March, and is composed of about eighty of our most respectable and influential citizens, who have determined to put an end as far as possible to this demoralizing traffic, and they have succeeded so well already that three dealers in these goods have been seeking other more honorable occupations. The Society intends employing a number of competent agents and detectives, whose business it will be to hunt up publishers of immoral literature, and the Society will see that they are properly punished.

The law on this subject is already quite stringent, but under the old régime in this City it was almost impossible to get a conviction, and the offenders were generally let off on a nominal bail.

Mr. J. R. DILLON, President of the Society, has gratuitously spent a great deal of time and labor in the Societie's interest. He has been to Washington and Albany, and has been promised the assistance of all the United States and State authorities in carrying out the laws. An additional law in regard to obscene quack advertisements passed the Senate at Albany last week, and will no doubt pass the House. The amount of injury inflicted on the younger portion of the community of both sexes, by the sale of improper books, is incalculable. The most vile circulars have frequently been sent into our colleges and young ladies seminaries. Mr. A. COMSTOCK has recently made a number of seizures of books and plates and has caused the conviction of a number of the dealers. The society intends establishing branches in every State in the Union, so that there is a prospect that this infamous traffic will shortly be entirely suppressed. Any persons who may receive any improper advertising circulars in any part of the country or who have any information to give that would aid in punishing offenders of this class, will receive attention by communicating with the President of the Society, Mr. J. R. DILLON, New-York.

Arrest of a Notorious Counterfeiter.

HENRY D. COLE, the notorious counterfeiter, was arrested yesterday by one of the officers of the Secret Service, having in his possession $3,000 in counterfeit currency. The prisoner was implicated in the great counterfeiting conspiracy which resulted in the arrest and trial of JOSHUA D. MINER some months since, but in consideration of his having become States evidence, he was then exempt from punishment. He has been known to the Government officials as the most successful counterfeiter in the country, and has already served a term in the State Prison on conviction of an offense of this character. COLE was recently arrested on a warrant issued by Judge COULTER, on a charge of forging the Allentown bonds, and was held to bail in $10,000 by Commissioner SHIELDS.

The Ship-Owners' Association—Election of Officers.

The Ship-owners' Association held a meeting, yesterday, at the Merchants' Exchange, and the following were elected officers for the ensuing year: President, Gustavus A. Brett; Vice-Presidents, D. Colden Murray and John G. Dale; Treasurer, William D. Morgan; Secretaries, Wm. Nelson, Jr. and S. C. Cornish.

On motion, a resolution was passed unanimously, thanking Hon. DAVID W. JUDD, of the Assembly, "for the prompt and active part taken by him in the investigation of the abuses of the Harbor-Masters, and for the services rendered the commercial interests of New-York."

The Vessel Owners' and Captains' Association.

At a meeting of the Vessel Owners' and Captains' Association, yesterday, the bills now before the Legislature relating to the Harbor-Masters and Quarantine matters, were discussed, and the following resolution adopted relating thereto:

Resolved, That the action of Hon. D. W. JUDD, F. A. ALBERGER and others, members of the Committee on Commerce and Navigation, of the Assembly, receives the unanimous and hearty approval of this Association, and we most respectfully urge the Assembly and Senate of the State of New-York promptly to pass the acts having reference to Quarantine matters and the appointment of Captains and Harbor-Masters of the port.

Opera Chorus Singers' Protective Union.

A meeting of chorus singers of the English, German and Italian opera, about thirty-six in number, was held at Dramatic Hall, in Houston street, yesterday, to form a protective association. A committee of three on organization was appointed, composed of Messrs. PHILLIP SCHLOESSOR, of the German Opera; H. PIPERINO, of the Italian Opera, and CAULDWELL, of the English Opera. It appears that an attempt is being made to reduce the salaries of the chorus singers to $20 per week, while on their part measures will be taken to enforce their own rate, which is $40 per week.

The Allentown School-Bond Forgery.

HENRY COLE, the alleged forger of the Allentown school bonds, was brought before Judge INGRAHAM, in Supreme Court Chambers, yesterday, and a motion made to admit him to bail. MIDLAND PACIFIC RAILWAY 7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

Limited to $13,333 per mile and secured by a first mortgage on a completed road running from Nebraska City, on the Missouri River, to Lincoln, the capital of Nebraska. This division has been open one year, and IS NOW EARNING MORE THAN THE INTEREST ON ITS BONDS. It is the central link of a direct East and West road now being rapidly built from Urbana, Ill., through a very rich agricultural and densely populated district the greater part of the way to Grand Island, on the Union Pacific. This new line is about 610 miles long, and much needed by the section of country which it traverses, therefore receives very liberal aid toward its construction, and the completion of the entire line is anticipated within 1873. In the meantime we shall sell the bonds only on completed road. This will make the shortest route from the Atlantic to the Pacific, it being almost an air line.

We recommend these bonds as a prime security. Coupons payable Feb. and Aug. 1, free of tax, in the City of New-York. Present price 90 and accrued interest in currency.

90 and ACCRUED INTEREST.

The Road runs from Buffalo to the Detroit River, and is the Eastern link in the new AIR LINE FROM BUFFALO TO CHICAGO, and has been under construction for about two years past by railroad men who have seen the necessity for a STEEL RAIL, LOW GRADE SHORT ROUTE between the great railroad systems which diverge from Chicago, Toledo and Buffalo.

Among the builders of the road, by whose cash subscriptions 220 miles (out of 290) have already been graded, bridged and made ready for the superstructure, a large part of the steel rails bought, all of the materials for the stations, and a part of the equipment purchased, are:

MILTON COURTRIGHT, JOHN F. TRACY, DAVID DOWS, WM. L. SCOTT, HENRY FARNHAM, R. A. FORSYTH, HENRY H. PORTER, JOHN M. BURKE, M. L. SYKES, JR., B. F. ALLEN, all directors, either in the Chicago and Northwest, or the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific; GEO. OPDYKE, of the Midland Road; JOHN B. ALLEN, SIDNEY DILLON, DANIEL DREW, J. S. CASEMENT, J. & J. CASEY, O. S. CHAPMAN, JOHN ROSS, DAVID STEWART, and F. H. WINSTON.

THE ROAD will be

33 MILES SHORTER THAN ANY OTHER ROAD,

either BUILT or in contemplation between Buffalo and Chicago, and will also shorten the distance between Toledo and Buffalo twenty-three miles.

THE MAXIMUM GRADE on the entire line does not exceed FIFTEEN FEET to the mile—and Ninety-six per cent of the road IS STRAIGHT.

THE ROAD WILL BE COMPLETED and in running order on or before Dec. 31 of this year.

The principal and interest of the bonds are payable either in New-York, London or Frankfort.

We confidently recommend the bonds to all classes of investors.

CAMPAIGN EDITION.

THE NEW-YORK TIMES—CAMPAIGN EDITION.

CAMPAIGN EDITION.

During the ensuing Presidential Canvass, we shall publish a Special Weekly Edition for the convenience of those who desire the latest and most trustworthy political intelligence.

Having made ample arrangements for securing the earliest reports of meetings, conventions, and other occurrences of political interest, we shall, throughout the Presidential canvass, publish fuller information relating to the progress of the campaign than any other New-York paper. We aim only at supplying the public with the most complete information on all current affairs.

Subscribers to our Campaign Edition will therefore secure an exhaustive summary of the political news of the day, besides receiving the general news from all parts of the World, obtained from the best sources, and rearranged and prepared specially for this edition.

The New-York Times is a Republican newspaper, and will, during the canvass, now fairly commenced, steadfastly maintain the established principles of that Party. It will support the regular nominees of the Philadelphia Convention, and do its share in securing their triumphant election in November. It regards the success of the Republican Party as an object of the very first importance, and will give no support to irregular or "bolting" nominations, which can only result in the return of the Democrats to power. There are projects of all kinds on foot for dissolving the Republican Party, and the Times will oppose them all. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New-York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The Times stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871—now other journals are attempting to make political capital out of the mere repetition of the cry. There is no sincere and honest proposal for reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the Times. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the party. It regards the Philadelphia Convention as the only body authorized to speak and act for the Republican Party.

TERMS:

The Campaign Edition of the New-York Times will be furnished to mail subscribers for the six months next ensuing, for the sum of FIFTY CENTS. All copies sent to the same Post-office to be mailed to one address.

THE NEW-YORK TIMES,

As a Republican journal, will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that Party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best conserved and promoted.

Started in September, 1851, The Times has for many years been recognized as among the most successful, popular, and influential newspapers in the country. Two of its original proprietors still direct its policy; and, with greatly-increased resources and experience, will spare no pains to extend and strengthen its claims upon the confidence and support of the public.

Its Editorial Department will be conducted in a spirit of fairness and impartiality, free alike from self-interested aims, political jobbery, or undue favoritism. It will represent the great body of the public rather than any clique of professional "politicians." It has no one connected with it who seeks office, or who will become a candidate for office. Its Correspondence will be full and timely, and its Reports will be prepared with the utmost care. The Literary Department will be in thoroughly capable hands, and will present a full review of the literature, the fine arts, the music, and the drama of the day.

As a family paper, free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, the Times will continue unexceptionable, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

The Sunday edition of the Times includes, in addition to all the news, selected and original literary matter of the most varied and agreeable character. Special arrangements have been made to impart new attractions to this feature of the paper.

The Weekly and Semi-Weekly editions of the Times are compiled with the greatest care, and will contain selections from the most important contents of the Daily issue, besides matters of interest to the agricultural sections of the country. All who prefer a newspaper but once or twice a week will find these editions admirably suited to their requirements.

A special edition of the Times for European circulation is published every Wednesday and Saturday, in time for the European mails, and will be valuable and welcome to our friends abroad, whether Americans or of any other nationality than our own.

All these editions of the Times are of the very largest size, on large quarto sheets, each containing fifty-six columns, printed in clear and legible type, at the following rates:

The Evening Post—which supported the Cincinnati Convention while there was a prospect of getting decent work from it—now substantially admits that it was a failure. We have had many differences of opinion with the Post, but we have never doubted its good faith in reference to its object in supporting the Cincinnati Convention. It aimed at something more than the victory of Fenton and the Tammany Republicans. Yesterday it related the following facts, which are well worthy of attention:

> "We were mistaken in the case of Maine, but one of the delegates from that State informed us that he was approached by the New-Yorkers with the offer to fill that delegation with citizens of this State. He knew that one of the Southern States was filled by men from this City. There can be no defense for such transactions as were perfectly well known to the impartial observers in Cincinnati."

At Philadelphia, we venture to hope, there will be no trickery of this kind. We should not like to see the John Cochranes getting the upper hand there—but we trust honest men, wherever they may come from, will have the fullest opportunity of making their opinions known.

One of the nuisances of the streets which calls for immediate attention is created by the pulling down and alteration of houses. The entire sidewalk is taken possession of, and the public are treated as if they had no right whatever to walk anywhere but in the road. A bad case of this kind is to be seen now in Union-square, on the Broadway side. We need not say that this is a very crowded thoroughfare, and yet ladies are compelled to turn out into the road—a very dangerous road—because builders happen to want the sidewalk. It would cost very little to put a hoarding up round the building now in process of demolition, and to construct a covered wooden sidewalk for the public. Is there no authority in the City to oblige the contractors to adopt this simple remedy for an intolerable nuisance?

The Democratic National Executive Committee met yesterday, and decided to hold a convention of the party, at Baltimore, on the 9th of July next. The feeling of the members was decidedly against supporting Mr. Greeley. Mr. Greeley may be willing to transfer himself to the Democrats, but it is another question whether they are willing to take him. Of all the Democratic papers which have come before us, the Brooklyn Eagle is the only one of sufficient standing and ability to render it worthy of notice which advocates Mr. Greeley. We quoted the other day a very clever article from the Eagle on the other side. We may be pardoned for having a suspicion that the Eagle is now treating the subject in the same vein of irony. We have a respect for the Eagle, because it is always an able journal, and because, even when it is fighting against us, it fights fairly, and, to borrow an expressive figure from the pugilists, does not "hit below the belt;" but we confess we cannot make out why it should recommend its party just now to support Fenton's nominee.

The highly salutary bill drafted by Mr. Tilden, providing for the holding of Oyer and Terminer Courts presided over by Justices designated by the Court of Appeals, for the trial of local officials accused of fraud, has been vetoed by Gov. Hoffman. Among the Governor's objections to the bill is one affirming its "doubtful constitutionality." Gov. Hoffman might have saved this City many millions of dollars had his scruples about the constitutionality of legislation been as highly developed under the Tweed régime as they are now. The Governor cannot present so fair a record of his term of office as to be able to afford to use his power, as he has been doing lately, with the consistent aim of stifling all Reform. This bill ought to be passed over the Executive veto.

The Conference Committee on Senator Palmer's provisional charter for the City of New-York, has wisely resolved to omit, as a necessary concession to the Executive, the Assembly amendment about sectarian appropriations. The charter will, it is to be hoped, receive the Governor's signature by Monday, at latest; and then we trust the Reformers of New-York will set themselves steadfastly to the work of preparation for the municipal election of the last day in May.

Amnesty—Civil Service Reform—Reduction of Taxation.

In the opinion of one of the most respectable supporters of the original Cincinnati movement, "the way is not yet closed" to a substantial harmony of the Republican Party, upon the solid ground of principle. For the first time since the opening of the bitter warfare sprung upon the country shortly after the meeting of Congress, there is a chance for agreement between those who, from their respective standpoints, and with equal sincerity, opposed the Cincinnati movement as a trick, or sustained it as an effort for reform. That the opportunity has at last come, we sincerely rejoice, and we shall not now waste time in asking whether, if some of those who now recognize it had confined themselves to the presentation of principles, and refrained from making personal issues, it might not have come much earlier, and perhaps have been of greater value.

The Post of last evening notices the fact that this paper has urged an honest and efficient reform of the civil service, and an extensive and equable reduction of taxation. It cordially approves these measures, and expresses the opinion that if a proper course is pursued with reference to them, and with reference to the South, especially by adding a scheme for general amnesty, there will be nothing left for Republican opposition to stand on. Upon these important subjects our course has been perfectly consistent. The Post confirms fully the position taken by us in innumerable articles, and points out the way in which all serious danger to the Republican Party—and so to the country—can be averted. We are of those who hold with the firmness of deep conviction that the failure of the Republican Party to carry the next Presidential election would be an incalculable calamity to the country. It would unsettle the adjustment of the questions of the war, embarrass commerce, and produce unlimited confusion and difficulty in the affairs of the Southern States, in the management of our finances, in the conduct of foreign affairs, and in the construction of some of the most essential portions of the Constitution as it now stands. This calamity would be doubly intolerable, if it resulted from neglect in seizing obvious opportunities for honest unity of action—from the rejection of a course which not only promises success, but which is demanded by the logical development of the policy and the purposes of the party.

The Post indicates certain measures, the practical adoption of which, in good faith, would remove the ground from beneath the feet of Republican opposition. Is there anything in those measures which any earnest Republican cannot sincerely accept?

If the Times can be received as at all a fair exponent of the feeling of Republicans, there certainly is not, for every one of these measures has been supported by this paper, with unflagging persistency, for years. Civil service reform, and rational and large reduction of taxation, have received not only our cordial, but our enthusiastic advocacy, when some of the present supporters of the Cincinnati candidates had nothing but sneers and opposition for both. As for amnesty, it cannot be necessary to remind our readers that this paper has made great sacrifices to the conviction that the South should have been treated kindly after the rebellion. Its first editor—some years, we regret to say, in advance of the sentiment of his country—devoted his utmost energies to the support of a policy of conciliation, and was rewarded by persecution, at the hands of some who now profess to champion the idea, more pitiless than anything in our political history. He was hounded down for demanding that very policy which is now demanded by those who assailed him in 1865-66. The paper has never abandoned the principles so early adopted. We now believe general amnesty to be a measure plainly demanded by public sentiment, and approved by sound judgment and intelligent patriotism. That it should be universal we do not believe. We do not think, for instance, that the reappearance of Jefferson Davis in the United States Senate, would be an event calculated to promote general good feeling, or to strengthen the belief of our people in the sacredness of the Union. We are not prepared to see a free pardon offered to this still defiant rebel, who "accepts nothing."

But it must not be forgotten that the measures which the Post receives as a basis for cordial unity cannot be secured from the Executive branch of the Government alone. There has been gross injustice done to the President by the assumption that he could, if he would, enact such measures of his own motion. This injustice, which every one with the slightest knowledge of the framework of our Government ought instantly to have detected, has worked wrong in many ways. It has made many unreasonable and extreme enemies for the President, which of itself was a misfortune, since he is entitled to the support of the country until he has really forfeited it. And beyond this, it has created the impression that the demand for these measures was only a pretext for attacking the President, who was not responsible for their not being carried out, and this impression has made many regard the measures with distrust. We must not forget this, in seeking a way toward genuine harmony in the party. The action requisite to that end must come mainly from Congress. Whatever may be thought of Gen. Grant—and we do not now discuss his record on these questions, because we are seeking an end to which all personal considerations are subordinate—every one must see that if Congress had carried out the recommendations of the President, there would be little left to ask for. What he has been unable to procure in the past cannot be asked of him alone now. On Congress lies the obligation of meeting the present emergency. The measures which are demanded of it meet the views of the great body of the party. So sure are we of this, that we are free to say that if the Philadelphia Convention does not declare unequivocally and explicitly for efficient civil service reform, for extensive and equable reduction of taxation, and for general amnesty, it will betray the party, and will do a great injustice to the country.

But Congress can do more than the Philadelphia Convention for the success of the Republican Party, which we believe to be essential to the country. It can write in the statutes as facts accomplished the measures which the Convention could only promise. It can call back to hearty accord all the sincere men who have sought or are seeking reform outside the party. It can free the country from the violence and disgrace of a bitter personal contest for the Presidency. And it can do all this by the discharge of its single duty as the portion of the Government peculiarly representative of the people, and responsible, by reason of its almost unlimited powers, for the general management of the affairs of the nation in accordance with the people's views.

Senator Schurz and the Cincinnati Convention.

There is nothing more agreeable than to find reason to believe that our estimate of a public man has been less favorable to him than his merits deserve—and, with regard to the Cincinnati Convention especially, we must make this revision of our judgment in reference to Senator Schurz. In the first place, his speech at that Convention was worthy of the extraordinary enthusiasm with which he is regarded by men of unquestionable ability and sagacity—like Mr. Samuel Bowles, for instance, a man not much accustomed to hero-worship—and it was also a speech of which any public man in the country might reasonably be proud. We do not agree with its censures of the Administration—but its general tone is that which we should be glad to see adopted throughout the canvass. In the next place, Senator Schurz's course throughout the Convention seems to have been singularly free from those base influences which cast suspicion upon the entire movement, and which were imported into it by professional politicians. We have read the evidence of the best leaders of the Convention, and they all agree in praising Senator Schurz, and in testifying that his conduct from first to last was straightforward and statesmanlike. We still think that Senator Schurz, at the outset of the canvass, was most unjust to the President in insinuating that he had some personal interest in perpetuating Custom-house abuses—that he was unfair to us in denouncing us as "liars" we are equally sure; but all this, and twice as much, ought not to restrain us from doing him justice when his course is that of a sincere-minded public man. It is impossible to weigh the testimony given by the honest leaders of the Cincinnati Convention, without coming to the conclusion that Senator Schurz did his best to obtain a fair expression of public opinion, and to defeat the paltry intrigues of political hacks. We are particularly impressed by the evidence of Mr. Samuel Bowles—who has been our chief assailant throughout this canvass, and who will probably continue to denounce us—but whose word on a question of fact we should be sorry to dispute. In an able review of the Convention, which we should print entire today if we had the space, Mr. Bowles says:

> "That he [Gratz Brown] allowed himself to so misapprehend the truth, and, misapprehending it, to take such revenge not only upon personal friends and faithful servants, but upon his allies in the early history of this reform movement, and himself be the direct instrument of nominating a protection President by a Convention which he himself called upon a revenue reform platform, all constitutes a case of personal weakness and cruel injustice, as well as of political infidelity, which will take years of faithful and intelligent and useful public service to atone for in the judgment of the nation. Thus fate strangely worked for Mr. Greeley's nomination. Many agencies contributed to his success. * * * * Let us hope that history will vindicate and redeem the chances and mischances that so resulted.
>
> My review and record of this notable Convention are not complete without a reference to its distinguished leader and President, the real master spirit of the movement, whose first National Convention carried so severe a blow and sharp a wound to him, personally. The conduct of Gov. Brown, and its resultant nomination of Mr. Greeley, were indeed a sad surprise and serious blow to Carl Schurz. Pledging in faltering voice his support of the nomination to the Convention, he left it weary with labor and sad in spirit for the house of his friend, Judge Stallo. Entering there a circle of equally disappointed friends, he said: 'I am overwhelmed and discouraged.' There were no words of consolation or cheer to offer him, and a sad silence reigned for a few moments. Then he turned to the piano, and with his master hand poured out his feeling through one of Auber's most touching compositions. It seemed as if the composer's thought had never been so fitly rendered before, and tears filled the eyes of the whole company. But in a more noble way than he was wounded will the country revenge Carl Schurz. His high and generous course at this Convention, and his noble address to it, won him the added respect of both friend and foe. Never did he stand so high in the estimation of the American people as at this moment, and he well deserves the significant compliment which Charles Francis Adams paid to him more than a year ago, in saying, 'that the one man who seemed to understand our institutions, their spirit, their history, their dangers and their possibilities, better than any other citizen, was of foreign birth, and his name, Carl Schurz.'"

Two Unsullied Legislators.

We should not have directed so many urgent appeals to the present Legislature had we not believed that many of its members were rather weak than deliberately wicked. Nor should we have expected our appeals to accomplish much, had we not been aware that there was a steadfast minority of men of strong principles, and unimpeachable integrity, in both Houses, whose hands we could strengthen, and whose co-operation we might confidently expect. In according special praise to the Chairman of the Assembly Judiciary Committee—Mr. Prince—for his resolute and high-toned course in regard to our corrupt Judges, and to Mr. Tobey, of the Insurance Committee, for the very great ability and devotion to public interests evinced by him during the Miller investigation, we merely select these gentlemen as types of the best kind of legislators whom we have had, this year, at Albany. What the cause of Reform in this City has gained by the impeachment of Barnard and the forced resignation of Cardozo, will only be fully appreciated after we have had a few years of Judicial purity to set beside the dark record of judicial corruption, in league with political knavery, and fostering the worst forms of social demoralization.

That there is a fair prospect of purifying the New-York Bench is very greatly due to the clear insight, the consummate tact, and the unsullied integrity of Mr. Prince. A chairman of a different type might have worked infinite mischief in the councils of a Committee overburdened with work, tempted on every side, and with a mass of testimony before them, which even trained analytical minds found appalling. Mr. Prince not only mastered the case against the Judges, but he mastered the necessities imposed on its conduct by the peculiar character of the Legislature. From Mr. Tilden and others associated with him, Mr. Prince had powerful support, but neither they nor the public will grudge him a large share of the credit of a good work well done.

Those who have looked through the 1,200 printed pages which form part of the dreary record of the Miller investigation, may be able to appreciate the indefatigable energy which was required to sustain Mr. Tobey in his conduct of a large part of the examination of witnesses. Those who find subject for congratulation in the State and the insurance companies being relieved from the incubus of Superintendent Miller, will accord to Mr. Tobey a hearty meed of praise for his share in the clear and convincing summary of the case, and for his able presentation of all its points to the Assembly. It is to such men as Messrs. Tobey and Prince that the Legislature owes anything that has been creditable in its record, and it is the small class whom they represent that the public have to thank for the fact that reform has not been absolutely betrayed in the house of its nominal friends at Albany.

Our Police Justices.

Should the Legislature adjourn to-morrow, as is proposed, without taking definite action on the bills calling for the reorganization of our Police Courts, it will damage the good name it has lately earned for itself by its course in regard to the corrupt Judges, to Miller, and by its efforts to give the City some kind of decent charter.

The Police Courts of this City need revision; there can be no question about that. Yet two or three bills for reorganizing them have been detained by the Judiciary Committee for weeks. Any one of the bills sent to the Committee would have rid the City of a crying shame, and the Legislature should, even at this late hour, strive to give the citizens some relief.

Detailed allegations of malfeasance, disqualification, and corruption on the part of our Police Magistrates have been repeatedly made, and we published on Monday the pith of a report made to the Council of Political Reform on this very matter. That report ought to have released the bills now in the hands of the Judiciary Committee, and sent them to the Assembly. At present the entire administration of criminal justice in this City is in the hands of nine men, nearly all of whom are unfitted for the responsible positions they occupy. Many of these Police Justices habitually associate with the leaders of the class they are so often called upon to examine as criminals, and it is nothing new to say that too frequently the examinations are absolute farces, the plot being well understood by the parties interested. Then there are the fines. Each Justice has an average of ten thousand persons arraigned before him each year, yet out of ninety thousand prisoners in 1871, the total return of fines to the Controller was the insignificant sum of $45. No one believes that this was all the money collected as fines in nine Courts for a year, so there must be considerable fraud on the part of these officials. The criminal classes are always ready to work and vote for the party that shields them when caught depredating upon property, and Tammany now anxiously seeks to keep its adherents on the Police Bench, careless of the fact that a continuance of the present system is a nuisance and a curse.

Are these not sufficient reasons for prompt action by the Legislature? Must we be told that a fund raised by the Police Justices has proved strong enough to defeat a reform measure that is earnestly demanded by every honest lawyer in the City, and every law-abiding citizen who desires to see the criminal laws righteously and rigorously enforced? It is not too late to remedy the shameful neglect already noticed, and if the Legislature fail to act, the members will find themselves called to a strict account in the future.

More "Enterprise."

On Tuesday the reputed conductors of the Herald and the Tribune had an affecting interview. The intensity of the emotions engendered thereat may be surmised from the fact that a sympathetic thrill seems to have passed through the columns of both papers, and a "nice derangement of epitaphs" bore witness to the excited feelings of J. G. Bennett, Jr., and Horace Greeley. Among other things, the Herald made the following startling announcement on its editorial page:

> "Superintendent Miller, of the Insurance Department, has friends in the State Assembly. A resolution introduced yesterday in the House for his removal from office was defeated by a decisive vote."

Now, had this been a story about Africa, nobody would have doubted that it was the direct antipodes of the truth. But as it related to a vote which had been taken at Albany, overnight, it is somewhat difficult to construct a theory to account for the amazing stupidity or dishonesty on the part of the Herald. With its well-known partiality for Tammany corruptionists, it is intelligible enough that the Herald should have wished Superintendent Miller to be retained; but after the Assembly had voted his removal "by a decisive majority," it is difficult to see what good could come to Miller from the statement that the vote was on the other side.

As the interview, above referred to, is said to have been participated in by Mr. Greeley's chief gusher, it is perhaps not to be wondered at that the Tribune should have gone to sleep over the afternoon telegrams. It accordingly announced to its readers yesterday morning the following piece of "news:"

> "We believe the country will rejoice to learn that the Tariff bill reported to the House from its Committee of Ways and Means was yesterday killed by a vote striking out its enacting clause, by the strong majority of 95 yeas to 75 nays. We judge that this puts an end to tariff revision for the session."

Had the arduous political labors of the great Professor of Journalism permitted him to wait a little longer, he would have discovered that a still stronger majority decided that the tariff was not to stand, and that the work of revision was to be proceeded with promptly, reversing a decision which the Tribune assumed "the country will ratify." Perhaps in his next lecture on the newly-discovered science of journalism, the Professor will be able to cite this, among other instances, in proof of the fact that political huckstering and newspaper editing cannot be associated with any advantage—to the newspaper.

Curious Congratulations.

Although the Tribune has no space for news, it can find room for a series of telegrams purporting to have been sent to Mr. Greeley by various combinations of the letters of the alphabet, an occasional asterisk, and one or two persons signing their own unknown names. We reproduce, in whole or in part, a few of these astonishing telegrams, in order that our readers may have an opportunity to judge of their vast importance.

An enthusiastic Irishman, who signs himself "P. B. Bonner," declares that he and all his Irish friends are proud of Mr. Greeley. Whether Mr. Bonner's compatriots have changed their views since they mobbed Mr. Greeley one memorable July day, or whether Mr. Greeley himself has changed his opinions since the hour that he spent in retirement and reflection under Windust's table, those who best know the average Irishman and the actual Greeley can judge. An office-holder, who dates his letter from nowhere in particular, and conceals his name, says: "In my position here I am compelled to support the Administration." To the outside world there would seem to be little comfort for the Cincinnati candidate in this assertion, but doubtless it was written by a correspondent of the Tribune, who has since been dismissed from his office, and can now openly advocate the Presidential claims of his editor-in-chief. Another anonymous person—and it is strange with what unanimity those who congratulate Mr. Greeley conceal their names—remarks that "the office-holders are savage, but the ground tier" take a "comprehensive view of the subject." Evidently this writer has had a controversy with the office-holders in his district—possibly with regard to the payment of the whisky tax—and we can thus easily understand why they are "savage" with him. He ought, however, to be a little more explicit with regard to the "ground tier," and explain the reasons why that singular entity—if it be an entity—occupies itself in the extraordinary recreation of taking views. Still another strictly anonymous person writes that some one in Kentucky has ordered "1,000 white hats." Doubtless some Kentucky hatter has ordered one thousand white straw hats, but they cannot be properly considered as straws which have anything to do with indicating the course of the political wind. Then, by way of variety, we have a message signed with an ostensible name, that of W. H. McCaw, a Southerner, who says that Mr. Greeley has "hosts of admirers among the Democrats of the South." Why did this Professor lessen the force of this telegram by weakly signing it McCaw, when it would have been quite as easy to subscribe it with the name of Mr. Greeley's intimate friend Jeff. Davis? And, finally, the Tribune reproduces what is apparently a genuine letter, and which we give in full:

> CHICAGO, Saturday, May 4, 1872.
> To Horace Greeley: I belong to the United States Party, representing a country worth saving. I am a soldier of the war of 1812, and have voted fifty-one times. I don't want anything, bless the Lord. The one term is now absolutely fixed.

The proverbial drowning man who catches at a straw is logical and clear-headed in comparison with the Professor who fancies that the foregoing declaration of a man who wants no change, who "belongs to the United States Party," and who does not say one word about the Cincinnati nominations, is a proof of the popularity of Mr. Greeley's claims. However, Mr. Greeley is clearly entitled to whatever crumbs of comfort he can obtain from these "congratulations." He certainly needs all of that sort of thing that he can obtain, and he who would grudge it to him would be heartless indeed.

Why the following messages were omitted by the Professor it is not necessary to inquire. Mr. Greeley may perhaps overlook this omission on the part of his subordinates, but he will nevertheless feel obliged to us for their publication:

> SOUTH CAROLINA, May 3.
>
> Horace Greeley: Believing from your course during the last ten years—when you advocated secession, begged Mr. Lincoln to pay us for our slaves, negotiated with Sanders and Thompson to secure us favorable terms, proposed to the North to surrender if Lee should reach the Delaware, bailed Mr. Davis, and praised our Generals during your late tour in the South—that you were always the secret friend of the Confederacy, we heartily indorse your nomination for the Presidency, and hope confidently, in the event of your election, to accomplish at last the salvation of the Lost Cause. All our Klans are with you.
>
> K. K. K.
>
> NEW-YORK, May 5.
>
> Hon. Horace Greeley: We welcome your accession to the cause of free-trade, as professed in your letter to the Missouri revenue reformers, declaring in favor of a tariff for revenue only. Hurrah for Greeley and free-trade! We have lots of British gold to spend for your election.
>
> COMMITTEE OF FREE-TRADE PARTY.
>
> WISCONSIN, May 1.
>
> Old Horace: At last we are in the same party. Henry Clay Dean will stump the West for you. The Lacrosse Democrat will do its level best for you.
>
> BRICK.

These letters taken together show conclusively that all the staid and reputable men in the country are disgusted with Grant, and will triumphantly elect Mr. Greeley. Thus does the Professor of moral and æsthetic journalism manufacture public opinion.

MINOR TOPICS.

One of the recent indications of the growth of public opinion in Russia has been a desire to know more about Siberia. The total number of exiles in that country is stated to be over three hundred thousand, that being about one for every two hundred of the population. At various places in the land of exile are bureaus or distribution, whence prisoners are apportioned to different parts of the country. These offices draw large sums for assisting the exiles, but there is an impression prevalent that the latter rarely participate in what is intended for them. Although Siberia is by no means altogether the unendurable place which it is represented in story, and some parts of it are even, for a great portion of the year, charming—to be liable to transportation for life there, without a trial, is scarcely a delightful contingency, and it is not likely that this sort of thing will continue much longer. Such a system is wholly antagonistic to what seems to be the aim and policy of the present Emperor. Lettres de cachet scarcely harmonize with emancipation of surfs, a rigorous repression of official and judicial corruption, and a gradual unmuzzling of the Press.

The Tribune announced yesterday, amid a great display of capital letters, that the election of a Police Commissioner in Schenectady was "the first Greeley victory." It begins to look as if Greeley victories were to be confined to this class of imperceptible advantages. The Convention of Colored Republicans at Troy was expected to support Greeley; it has made an unequivocal and unanimous declaration in favor of Gen. Grant. The Republican Convention in New-Hampshire has also quietly shelved the Cincinnati nominee, and elected delegates to the Philadelphia Convention, under a resolution indorsing the Administration of President Grant, and calling for his renomination.

The Marquis Camden, who died a fortnight ago, was grandson of the first Marquis, who may be fairly regarded as one of the most remarkable men in his own country. That nobleman held the patent place of Teller of the Exchequer, an absolute sinecure with some sixty thousand dollars a year. When he had held it some years, he came to the conclusion that the existence of such a place was an absolute fraud upon the nation, and resigned it. His act was the more creditable in that he was by no means a rich man. A parallel case was that of the late Lord Taunton, long known as Mr. Labouchere. At the outset of railway enterprise, his father was fiercely prejudiced against those dreadful innovators which were to demoralize the whole world. He stoutly opposed the passage of the Great Eastern Railway bill, but finding that the company was too strong for him, and that the line must pass through his estate, he made the most outrageous terms, with which the company were forced to comply. When his son succeeded, he sent the company a check for a large sum, saying that he could not afford to profit by his father's prejudices, and therefore only retained what he thought was the real value of the land sold. In this corrupt, self-seeking world, such deeds as these "shine like lights before men," and deserve to be recorded.

We quote the following remarkable statement from the Albany Evening Journal of yesterday:

> "It is understood that a private letter from Mr. Greeley has been handed around during the past two or three days advising the acquittal of Superintendent Miller. We are somewhat at a loss to understand whether this is an exemplification of that peculiar 'reform' on whose platform he is now a candidate for the Presidency, or whether it is a part of that effort which he is expected to make in order to commend himself to Democratic favor, but are inclined to think it is both. The spectacle of a 'reform' Republican candidate for the Presidency interposing by private letter to save a venal Democratic officer is refreshing. Mr. Greeley has begun his joint campaign of 'reform' and Democracy very promptly, but not thus far with distinguished success."

The case came on, a few days ago, in the London Bankruptcy Court, of Viscount Parker, eldest son of the Earl of Macclesfield. This young nobleman makes about the tenth man of high degree who has "gone through the Court" within the last eighteen months. His debts are a miserable trifle beside the hundreds of thousands of Lord Courtenay and others of his compeers, but it is said that his father, who is not wealthy, declined to impoverish the rest of his nine children in favor of their eldest brother. This is unquestionably the right way to check the scandal in England of bankrupt peers, who have become so frequent that actually the Lords had last year to pass a special act to disqualify them from sitting in their House. There are many young men who scatter their money broadcast until they learn that their fathers won't stand it, and have not the faintest intention of paying their debts. It is not only in England that fathers may find this a salutary course to pursue, despite the entreaties of fond mothers.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theatrical.

"LONDON ASSURANCE" AT WALLACK'S THEATRE.

The revival of "London Assurance" at Wallack's, with a cast the equal of which we certainly are unlikely to look upon again, has proved a great card for that theatre. Business is apt to slacken at the fag end of the season, even at our most popular houses, but this is so far from being the case at Wallack's of late, that it has not always been possible to supply the demand for seats. Messrs. Wallack, Mathews, Gilbert and Brougham have delighted their audiences in parts wherein it is only moderate praise to say they are unexcelled, and Mr. Stoddart, if not always the most legitimate, is the funniest of Meddles. To-night a change is made in the cast which attracts considerable interest. A young lady is to make her "first appearance on any stage" in the character of Grace Harkaway. Mr. Wallack is not a manager to try light experiments, and so the inference is that the debutante has evinced decided promise. The dramatic walk which her choice of an opening part indicates the young lady's disposition to essay is sadly in need of efficient recruits, and we hope the performance of to-night will warrant the expectation that she may help to supply the void.

Personal.

Mr. Max Strakosch was among the passengers by the Scotia, which sailed for Europe yesterday. Mr. Strakosch will return early in the Fall. The results of his labors during the past few years, give every assurance that his reappearance will preface a series of musical entertainments quite worthy of mention with those of which Miss Nilsson has been the central figure since September, 1870.

Department of Public Instruction.

A special meeting of the Commissioners of Public Instruction was held yesterday afternoon, President Smyth and Commissioners Sands, Wood, Brennan, Jarvis, Ingersoll, Jenkins, Lewis and Van Vorst being present.

A letter was received from Isaac W. England, Esq., in which he tendered his resignation as Commissioner of Public Schools, which was placed on file.

A communication was also received from the Mayor announcing the appointment of Edward O. Jenkins to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. England.

THE POLITICAL FIELD.

MINNESOTA.

Meeting of the Republican Convention—Grant Strongly Supported.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 8.—The Republican State Convention met here today. Lieut.-Gov. YALE presided. Resolutions were adopted giving renewed expressions of confidence in the Administration, and requesting the delegates to Philadelphia to cast their votes and exert their influence for GRANT and COLFAX. No office-holders were elected delegates. The Committee nominated O. P. WHITCOMB for State Auditor. The Presidential electors nominated were CHAS. A. COLE, M. S. CHANDLER, THEO. LANDER, EX-GOV. MARSHALL and CHAS. KITTLESON.

C.

THE COLORED REPUBLICANS.

An Enthusiastic Meeting of the State Convention—They will Remain in the Regular Republican Party.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

TROY, N. Y., May 8.—The colored Republicans of the State assembled in delegated Convention here today. The attendance was large, unusually so, and nearly every county in the State was represented. ELIAS P. CONNOVER, of New-York, was chosen temporary Chairman, and a Committee on Credentials appointed. The delegates at the outset evidently regarded each other with mutual distrust, for some of the dissenters had been busily engaged in spreading a report that the representatives from the northern and western portions of the State had come prepared to sell out the Convention to GREELEY. When Mr. CONNOVER, in the course of his speech accepting the Presidency, declared that the colored men of New-York would remain true to the great Republican Party and to Gen. GRANT, this false impression was dissipated. At the mention of Gen. GRANT's name every delegate present arose to his feet and gave utterance to demonstrations of approval. While the Committee on Credentials was preparing its reports the delegates from the different counties reported the feeling among their constituents. every man declared for GRANT, and gave assurances that there would be no defection. W. H. JOHNSON, of Albany, was elected permanent President. In the course of his speech of acceptance, Mr. JOHNSON indorsed the Administration, and the applause that followed prevented him from proceeding for some minutes. At the session this evening committees on resolutions and on address to the colored voters of the State were appointed. The Convention, after discussing the political situation, adjourned until to-morrow morning. The body is looked upon as one of the largest and ablest conventions of colored men ever seen in this State.

THE PRESIDENCY.

Judge Davis Prefers Grant to Greeley—Probability of the Reformers Supporting the Former.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Judge DAVIS has gone to his home in Bloomington, Ill. He is said to prefer GRANT for President to Mr. GREELEY, and the Labor Reformers, who nominated Judge DAVIS at Columbus, have the same preference. It is said that Judge DAVIS' withdrawal as a candidate will be formally made, and those persons who make labor reform, as it is called, a political question, will make no other nomination this year, but indorse President GRANT's nomination, and vote for him.

Hendricks and Pendleton Opposed to Greeley—His Election a Calamity.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Hon. THOS. A. HENDRICKS and Hon. GEO. H. PENDLETON telegraphed here today to a Democratic member of Congress, to the effect that the use of their names by JNO. D. DEFREES, in his dispatch to HORACE GREELEY, to the effect that they had indorsed his nomination, was wholly unauthorized. Mr. HENDRICKS added that he would regard the election of Mr. GREELEY as a national calamity, and that he favored the nomination of a regular Democratic ticket. It is understood here that the same information was placed in the possession of the Democratic National Committee, which met in New-York today.

Senator Trumbull's Conversion—The Colored Vote Lost to the Liberals.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Mr. TRUMBULL, in his opposition to Mr. SUMNER's Civil Rights bill, is more demonstrative and partisan than any Democrat. The views he expressed today were so much stronger and bolder than those expressed by him before he became a full-fledged liberal, that even the Democrats were surprised, and privately expressed wonder at the thoroughness of his conversion. One thing was made very evident—that the vote of the colored race is not desired or to be sought by the Greeley party, as there can be no hope of carrying any negro votes for that ticket after the speech of Mr. TRUMBULL against legislation to secure the rights they are asking for through Mr. SUMNER. His opposition further widens the breach between Mr. SUMNER and the new party of bridge-burners. They seem to have burned their bridges behind them with so much recklessness that Mr. SUMNER cannot get over to them if he would. If the Democratic Party does not come to the Reformers, the Reformers will go to it.

The Revenue Plank in the Cincinnati Platform—Some New Facts.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The secret history of the revenue plank of the Cincinnati platform ought to be written up by one or two certain gentlemen who are capable of doing it, and who are under no obligations not to do it. If this is done, then it will be seen how much the nomination had to do with inducing Mr. GREELEY to accept what he declared to be a guzzle and a cheat, when he had no idea that the nomination would reach him. The free-traders and revenue reformers still declare that the first clause of the resolution, as finally adopted, contains the very essence of free-trade. In declaring for non-interference in the pursuits of the people, it is in these words:

"Sixth—We demand a system of federal taxation which shall not unnecessarily interfere with the industries of the people," &c.

The origin of this clause was this. It was first written by DAVID A. WELLS and submitted to DAVID DUDLEY FIELD, and agreed upon by the New-York delegation, with the understanding that it was to be offered in the Committee on Resolutions by New-York, as the happy escape from the tribulations of the question. At this time the clause was in these words:

Resolved, That the system of Federal taxation should be so adjusted as to interfere least with the business of the people, &c.

It was therefrom telegraphed to Mr. GREELEY, who responded in substance that the Field resolution was a summons to surrender. That as between free-traders and protectionists there could be an agreement to disagree, but no compromise, which would only prove a juggle of words, and that if anything but a recognition of their disagreements was attempted he must be counted out. This put an end to all attempts to prepare a revenue plank until the Committee on Resolutions met; when, after various propositions had been rejected, a subcommittee was appointed who hitched together the first clause of the resolution as above given and the clause recognizing honest differences, and remitting the subject to the people, ending with the absurd and unconstitutional demand that the wishes of the people as expressed by their representatives should be respected, regardless of executive interference or dictation, which is simply to deny to the President his constitutional veto power, and to assert that he shall not obey the constitutional requirement to make recommendations to Congress. There is no truth in the report telegraphed from here that the resignation of Mr. CHARLES HALE as Assistant Secretary of State has been either accepted, tendered or asked for.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Acceptance of Hon. Ulysses Mercur.

Hon. ULYSSES MERCUR has written the following letter accepting the Republican nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania:

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 26, 1872.

Col. H. J. Reeder, President of Republican State Convention:

SIR: Your letter informing me that I have been unanimously nominated for Judge of the Supreme Bench by the Republican State Convention, held in Harrisburg on the 10th inst., is just received. I duly appreciate the honorable and responsible position of a Justice of the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The multifarious rights of more than three and a half millions of people may be subjected to his judicial action. I accept the nomination. If the people ratify the action of the Convention I trust that no act of mine shall ever lessen the traditional confidence and esteem in which the Judiciary of our State has ever been held by the Bar and by the people. With sentiments of the highest consideration for yourself and the Convention which you represent, I remain, yours truly,

ULYSSES MERCUR.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE.

Meeting of the Republican Convention—They Favor Grant and Wilson.

CONCORD, N. H., May 8.—The Republican Convention to elect delegates to the National Convention, met in Phœnix Hall this morning. Hon. E. H. ROLLINS, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, made some brief remarks and then announced the permanent organization of the Convention as follows:

President—Hon. Mason W. Tappan, of Bradford.

Vice-Presidents—One delegate from each county.

Secretaries—Chester B. Jordan, of Colebrook; Thomas C. Rand, of Keene; Geo. W. Marston, of Portmouth.

Committees on Credentials and Resolutions—One delegate from each county.

Mr. TAPPAN on being introduced congratulated the Convention upon the victory lately achieved in this State, and spoke of the differences that existed at present among the Republicans, but said there was no reason to fear for the result, as the whole matter was in the hands of an all-wise Providence, who will see that all is well. The Convention then balloted for four delegates to the National Convention.

The Chairman announced the delegates at large elected by the Convention as follows: Frederick Smyth, of Manchester; Thomas M. Edwards, of Keene; Ossian Ray, of Lancaster; William H. Y. Hackett, of Portsmouth, and James M. Johnson, of Enfield. The following substitutes were chosen: Hon. Samuel Upton, of Manchester; George W. Marston, of Portsmouth; Charles W. Rand, of Littleton; Col. Samuel D. Quarles, of Ossipee.

The Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were accepted and adopted:

Resolved, That in Gen. ULYSSES S. GRANT we recognize a statesman as well as a General; a man patriotic and wise; in peace as brave and skillful as in war; a man who, by a judicious Administration, has gained the confidence of and endeared himself to the American people, and as expressive of the sentiments of the Republicans of New-Hampshire indicated in the recent election, we sincerely desire his renomination and re-election.

Resolved, That while we fully and cordially acknowledge the great merits and services of Hon. SCUYLER COLFAX, and of other Republican statesmen whose names have been presented in connection with the Vice-Presidency, we cannot refrain from expressing our preference for Hon. HENRY WILSON, an early, faithful and untiring champion of freedom and humanity, and a statesman of signal ability, spotless integrity and unswerving fidelity to Republican principles.

The Convention then adjourned.

The Convention was fully attended and the deliberations harmonious. Several Congressional districts held conventions this afternoon to choose two delegates from each district to the National Convention.

The following are the delegates chosen:

District One—Charles S. Whitehouse, of Rochester; Albert G. Folsom, of Laconia. Alternates—Samuel C. Fisher, of Dover; Martin A. Haynes, of Gilford.

District Two—O. C. Moore, of Nashau; Daniel Barnard, of Franklin. Alternates—A. W. Stewart, of Franklin; N. P. Kidder, of Nashau.

District Three—George B. Twitchell, of Keene; Dexter Richards, of Newport. Alternates—Edmund Brown, of Lancaster; Charles H. Cheney, of Lebanon.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The National Executive Committee Select Baltimore for It.

The Democratic National Executive Committee assembled yesterday afternoon, at the residence of Mr. AUGUST BELMONT, No. 109 Fifth-avenue, to consider the time and place for holding the National Convention. The call of the Chairman was for 2 o'clock, but it was nearly 3 before the members of the Committee assembled, and even then nine States—California, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Wisconsin and Oregon—were not represented in the Committee. The following are the names of the delegates present: New-York, August Belmont, Chairman; Alabama, John Forsyth; Arkansas, John M. Harrell; Delaware, Gov. Jas. Ponder; Illinois, W. F. Storey; Indiana, Gen. Lewis Wallace in the place of W. E. Niblack; Iowa, Daniel Finch; Kentucky, T. C. McCreery; Kansas, I. E. Eaton; Michigan, W. A. Moore; Missouri, C. A. Mantz; Massachusetts, F. O. Prince; Minnesota, Col. J. Wall, of New-Jersey, in place of C. W. Nash; Maine, S. L. Lyman; Maryland, Gov. Odin Bowie; New-Jersey, John McGregor; New-Hampshire, William Burns, in the place of Col. Bingham; Nebraska, I. E. Davis, in the place of G. L. Miller; Nevada, J. McCorkle; Ohio, J. G. Thompson; Pennsylvania, J. Barr for Isaac Heister; Rhode Island, G. Bradford; South Carolina, Charles H. Simington; Texas, John Hancock; Tennessee, W. B. Bate, representative for J. W. Leftwick; Virginia, John Goode; Vermont, H. B. Smith; West Virginia, John Hall. For some time after the members assembled they gathered in groups and talked about the position of affairs, some suggesting it would be well to take up the Cincinnati nominees, but the majority being of the opinion that the Democratic Party was large enough and strong enough to have a candidate of their own, who was not tainted with ideas opposed to the principles of the Democratic Party.

After the Committee was organized, with Mr. BELMONT in the chair, I. E. EATON, from Kansas, opposed the holding of the Democratic Convention, on the ground that the Cincinnati nominees were satisfactory to the Democratic Party, and moved that the call be indefinitely postponed. It was lost.

Another motion was then made to defer the action of the Executive Committee until after the Philadelphia nominations had been made, but this too was lost. Then the selection of the place where the Convention should be held brought out diversity of opinion, and discussion on Baltimore, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Louisville as desirable places. After much debate Baltimore was finally selected, as it was thought to be a location in which less opportunity would be afforded for carrying out the corrupt tactics that prevailed in Cincinnati during the sittings of its Convention. The time was fixed for Tuesday, July 9. After this was settled upon, the Subcommittee decided upon the drawing up of the call, after which the Executive Committee finally adjourned, until the assembling of the Convention.

The following is the call for the National Democratic Convention:

The National Democratic Committee, by virtue of the authority conferred upon them by the last National Democratic Convention, at a meeting held this day at New-York, voted to hold the next Convention, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States, on the 9th day of July, 1872, at 12 o'clock M., in the City of Baltimore.

The basis of representation as fixed by the last Democratic Convention, is double the number of Senators and Representatives in Congress in each State under the apportionment of the Census of 1870.

Each State will send delegates accordingly, and we invite the cordial co-operation of all Conservative citizens who desire the restoration of constitutional Government and the perpetuation of Republican institutions.

Our reporter had an interview with Mr. STOREY, of Chicago, one of the members of the Committee, and was told that in the opinion of many Judge DAVIS stood some chance of getting the Democratic nomination.

Greeley's Record.

The Knoxville (Tenn.) Chronicle puts it bluntly thus: "He bailed JEFF. DAVIS when arraigned for treason, but, if he had had the power, he would have hung and quartered ANDY JOHNSON, because he did not agree with his party. He eulogized LEE and JACKSON at Vicksburg, but he denounced TRUMBULL as a perjured, bribed traitor for voting not guilty in JOHNSON's impeachment trial. He denounces corruption in GRANT, but he had for a long time very soft words for OAKEY HALL and TWEED, who were plundering New-York."

An Affecting Interview.

New-York Sun, May 8.

Later in the afternoon the next President of the United States dined with Mr. WHITELAW REID in a private room at Delmonico's. While there Mr. JAMES GORDON BENNETT, Jr., called on Dr. GREELEY, and paid his respects before his departure for Europe. Mr. BENNETT, when parting with Dr. GREELEY, expressed the hope that he would see the Sage of Chappaqua yet occupying the Presidential chair. Dr. GREELEY smiled, and said, "I thank you, Mr. BENNETT."

Dr. GREELEY is so much harassed by callers that he is compelled to accept the hospitalities of his numerous friends. He spends the evenings and sleeps in a different locality every night. The Doctor steadily pursues the even tenor of his way, and his office routine is unchanged.

A New Work by the Next President.

Indianapolis Journal.

WANTED—Agents to sell in all the States and Territories the Book of the Age, which will be ready for delivery on and after the first Tuesday in November. The work is illustrated with costly engravings, among which may be mentioned:

First Engraving—The model type of disinterested patriotism in HORACE, who defeated the nomination of WILLIAM H. SEWARD; who thought to defeat the renomination of ABRAHAM LINCOLN in the midst of the war; who purposes to prevent the re-election of U. S. GRANT that the nation may have for President, not the conqueror of JEFF. DAVIS, but his fawning bailer.

Second Engraving—Amnesty. Being a Universalist and believing theologically in the final amnesty of all devils, I am in favor of political amnesty and restoration to power to all rebels.

Third Engraving—Sackclock. Illustrative of the humility of defeat and the depth of chagrin —to GREELEY, JEFF. & Co.—in not securing the reins of Government and the desecration of Arlington, by planting roses on the graves of rebels as well as patriot soldiers.

N. B.—A prompt notice of this work, by all newspapers, irrespective of party, will entitle editors to a copy on its publication.

Address, TRIBUNE, NEW-YORK.

Charles Francis Adams Inferior to Greeley.

New-York Tribune, April 27.

They will sustain HORACE GREELEY, whose presence on the ticket should be a guarantee to the country of the dignity and power of the reform movement; he would, they argue, carry an overwhelming Republican vote, and render the work of the Philadelphia gathering useless. They are equally frank in their repugnance to CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS, whose letter is regarded as frivolous and undignified. He is accused of courting Administration bounty by his careless or, as they term it, slighting allusion to the Liberal Convention.

A Candid Opinion of Greeley by One of the Cincinnati Leaders.

From Mr. Samuel Bowles' Letter.

But, with his usual perversity of temper and openness to flattery, Mr. GREELEY will probably continue to give his faith and attribute his success to those who fawn upon him that they may use him, and to slander and abuse those braver and truer friends who dare expose these creatures to him and the world, and to tell him the truth that he needs to hear, even if he does not like it.

Mr. Greeley's Spokesman.

Report of meeting of New-York Democrats, held on Tuesday evening, May 7.

Hon. BENJAMIN WOOD supported the motion, saying that he believed nine-tenths of the Democrats in the country were favorable to the nomination of HORACE GREELEY at that Convention. [Cheers.] Mr. WOOD also said that HORACE GREELEY had told him that no Republican Convention could cause his withdrawal. If the Democrats failed to ratify he might withdraw.

A Pretty Record for a President.

Harper's Weekly.

We invite all thoughtful American citizens to consider the influences that nominated Mr. GREELEY, known to none so well as to the best men in the Convention; then to consider his attitude during the war, when the real character of every man was tried. He would have allowed the States to decide whether they would secede. He sorely perplexed the opening of Mr. LINCOLN's Administration, forcing the army into the field before it was ready. He begged Mr. LINCOLN to try to buy a peace by paying for the slaves. He represented Mr. LINCOLN's action in the Niagara conference in a manner which Mr. LINCOLN declared put him in a false position before the country. And he signed a letter to the loyal Governors after Mr. LINCOLN was renominated in 1864, substantially asking whether he should not be set aside and a new candidate selected. Consider such facts as these, occurring at moments of great national exigency, and decide what would have chanced had HORACE GREELEY been in the place of ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

If there is one quality which is indispensable in a President, it is sound judgment. If there is one public man who is totally destitute of it, it is HORACE GREELEY. A certain kindly feeling with which he is regarded will not blind the country to his natural unfitness for the office to which he has been nominated.

The Democrats Will Not Support Greeley—Why Should They?

Special Dispatch to the Evening Post, May 8.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Some of Mr. GREELEY's supporters have been engaged in an attempt to manufacture public sentiment in favor of his nomination by circulating reports that several of the most prominent leaders of the Democratic Party have openly declared that they will support him and urge the National Democratic Convention to do the same. Among the names used to further this scheme were those of GEO. H. PENDLETON and Ex-Senator HENDRICKS, of Indiana.

This morning a prominent Democratic Congressman received a letter from Ex-Senator HENDRICKS, in which he says unqualifiedly that he does not approve of Mr. GREELEY's nomination, and would regard his election as a public calamity. He further adds that the Cincinnati Convention was a mere fiasco. Mr. HENDRICKS says that he observes that JOHN D. DEFREES telegraphed to Mr. GREELEY that he (HENDRICKS) would support him in Indiana, but that was done without his (HENDRICKS') authority. Mr. HENDRICKS favors the regular Democratic nomination, and believes that that ticket can be elected.

GEORGE H. PENDLETON telegraphs this morning to some Congressmen that he has not committed himself to Mr. GREELEY's nomination, but expects to abide the decision of the National Convention, which will nominate a regular Democratic ticket. A representative who has made a careful canvass among the Democrats in the House and Senate says that not one Democrat in ten is in favor of Mr. GREELEY. The feeling is almost unanimous in favor of nominating a regular ticket. A prominent Southern Democrat says that just at the present time Mr. GREELEY seems very popular in the South, but when the sober second thought comes, and the people reflect that he has supported every measure advocated by President GRANT, and has favored the continuance of the Kuklux law, and of the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus in the Southern States, a reaction will set in, and Mr. GREELEY will be far from popular. This Democrat adds that during the late war the Southern people lost everything but their honor, and that they would lose that, too, by supporting the Cincinnati nominee.

Delegates to the State Convention.

The following are additional delegates to the Republican State Convention, to be held in Elmira on Wednesday next:

ALBANY COUNTY.—Second District—William M. Van Antwerp, Henry R. Pierson, Edward G. Sherley. Third District—C. M. Belknap, Henry W. Dwight, Thomas L. Greene.

MONROE COUNTY.—Second District—George W. Aldridge, Jonas Jones, James Baker, E. H. C. Griffin.

SARATOGA COUNTY.—First District—Cornelius Waldron, Jesse L'Amoreaux, T. G. Younglove.

GENESEE COUNTY.—L. W. Bangs, Wm. Tyrrell, H. F. Tarbox, V. G. Knapp. (Unanimous for GRANT.)

Meeting of the Greeley Republican General Committee—No Delegates to Elmira.

The "Greeley Republican General Committee" held a crowded and noisy meeting last evening, at No. 453 Fourth-avenue, the President, Mr. THOMAS E. STEWART, in the chair. The report of the Committee of twenty-one, one from each Assembly District, which had been appointed at the previous meeting to consider whether the "Liberal" Republicans shall send delegates to the regular Republican State Convention at Elmira, was read to the meeting. The essential portion of it is that they have concluded not to send delegates to the State Convention at Elmira. The report then proceeds at considerable length to justify the recommendation of the Committee by telling the old story of the disagreement with the other Republican General Committee and their version of the troubles at the Syracuse Convention, ending in the withdrawal of the Greeley-Fenton men.

The report of the Committee and its recommendations were adopted unanimously.

Gen. COCHRANE moved to ratify the nominations made at Cincinnati, but this called forth an unexpected opposition from Mr. JOHN T. GRAFF, who contended that the General Committee had no right to ratify the nominations. That must be done first by the district associations they represented. The nomination of GREELEY and GRATZ BROWN were finally ratified, and the meeting adjourned.

The Reform Association—Over Fifty-five Thousand Voters Enrolled.

The Executive Committee of the Reform Association met at Mr. OTTENDORFER's office, in the Staats Zeitung, yesterday afternoon.

William F. Havemeyer, John H. Strahan, Meyer Stern, James W. Gerard, Jr., Henry Nicoll, John H. Draper, Oswald Ottendorfer and Gen. Sigel were present. The following important address was adopted:

REFORM ASSOCIATION, }
NEW-YORK, May 8, 1872. }

To the Chairmen and Enrolling Officers of the Twenty-one Assembly Districts of the City of New-York:

The important work of enrolling all the friends of Reform has been a great success. Upward of fifty-five thousand citizens have already united with our Association, pledged to vote only for honest, capable men for the various offices of our City Government. In compliance with a resolution adopted at the first meeting of our Association, you will please call a meeting of the enrolling officers of your Assembly district as soon as possible, and solicit five names of well-known citizens for each election district in your Assembly district, and submit them on or before Monday next, May 13, to the Chairman of our Executive Committee, name in full—address and occupation. From the names thus submitted, the Executive Committee will select and appoint the Executive Committee to be known as the Reform Association for your Assembly district, and also to act as delegates to the General Committee, from which the delegates to the nominating Convention of all the Reform Associations shall be selected.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Many newspapers, present supporters of GREELEY, wince under the rasping of their old files.

Ex-Senator HENDRICKS, of Indiana, says he would regard GREELEY's election as a public calamity.

Two members of the National Democratic Committee of thirty-seven have died since it was appointed in 1868.

A report is circulating in Richmond that some Virginians appeared as delegates at Cincinnati under assumed names!

The new rules of the Republican Party of Philadelphia provide for direct votes for candidates in making nominations.

The Westliche Volksblatt, the German organ of North-west Missouri, came out yesterday strongly in opposition to GREELEY.

The Cincinnati Enquirer can't resist perpetrating its little joke. It says GREELEY had no wire-pullers for him in the Convention.

Gov. WASHBURN, of Massachusetts, did not once avail himself of his privilege to veto during the late session of the Legislature.

Hon. CHARLES R. BUCKALEW coyly consents to be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Pennsylvania.

The Republican State Central Committee of Pennsylvania will hold a meeting in Harrisburg on Wednesday next, to organize for the campaign.

A very amusing book might be made of the letters attributed to Mr. GREELEY which are floating through the Press—if it included the genuine ones.

The delegates from Montgomery County, N. Y., to the Republican State Convention are P. G. Webster, A. Hees, George C. Simpson and Z. S. Westbrook.

The Philadelphia Age says it is altogether out of the question to think of Hon. CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

Mr. HERMAN RASTER, the late Collector of Internal Revenue in the Chicago district, was presented on his birthday with a silver service by his late associates.

The delegates to the Democratic Convention at Nashville, Tenn., have arrived in large numbers, and it is said that they will acquiesce in the Cincinnati nominations.

Westminster, Md., elected a Republican Mayor and five Republican City Councilmen, the entire Board, on Tuesday. A small straw, but satisfactory to its extent.

The Philadelphians have appointed any number of committees to make arrangements for the national Republican Convention, and they seem to be all actively at work.

The Selma (Ala.) Times asks if the people will permit such an insult as the erection of a monument to JOHN BROWN at Harper's Ferry. The Times supports GREELEY.

CHARLES H. PORTER has entered the field as a candidate for Congress in the Fourth District of Virginia, in opposition to Hon. WILLIAM H. H. STOWELL, the present incumbent.

The Pennsylvania Labor Reformers completed their ticket yesterday, by the nomination of JAMES H. HOPKINS, of Allegheny, and J. W. CAKE, of Northumberland, for Congressmen at large.

A Michigan correspondent asserts that Greeley men in his neighborhood are "as scarce as hens' teeth." Anybody who knows anything about farming knows how plentiful they are.

The Washington Patriot (Democratic) thinks it is not worth while to discuss the questionable methods by which the nominations at Cincinnati were brought about. And this of the model "reform" Convention!

The Chicago Times says that LYMAN TRUMBULL cannot receive the support of the Illinois Democracy for any public station whatever, and that they would sooner vote for RICHARD J. OGLESBY for Governor than for him.

Cincinnati, feeling that its good name suffers from the result of the Liberal Convention, earnestly entreated that the Democratic National Convention might be held there, hoping that somehow it might retrieve its reputation.

Ex-Senator DOOLITTLE thinks once bolting in one year is enough for all practical purposes, and ought to satisfy all reasonable "reformers." DOOLITTLE is pretty good authority on this point, if expediency is to be regarded.

Correspondents in Virginia ridicule the idea that GREELEY is popular among the colored people of that State. They remember what part he took in foisting WALKER, the "Liberal," upon them as Governor in 1869. The results of his administration have disgusted them with Liberalism.

The Newark Advertiser suggests a modification of the preamble to Mr. SUMNER's modified one-term amendment, so that it shall read: "Whereas, the people of the United States are not competent to choose a President in their own way, and according to their own preferences, therefore," &c.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser says that the Republicans of that city and of Erie County generally have recently given evidence of being thoroughly organized, and that a vast improvement has been manifested recently, in the numbers and spirit of those who attend the party's primary meetings.

Col. W. E. CAMERON, editor of the Petersburg (Va.) Progress, and member of the State Conservative Executive Committee, has resigned the editorship in consequence of a disagreement with the proprietors of the Progress, who disapproved of his advocacy of HORACE GREELEY for the Presidency.

Assembly Bill No. 928.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

In your editorial of today upon Assembly bill No. 928, you did not mention the important fact that it was introduced April 18 by Hon. GEO. H. MACKAY, who was elected from the Thirteenth District of this City as a Reform member. The bill, if passed as introduced, will transfer from the pockets of the tax-payers to the present Sheriff the insignificant sum of $256,000. Of course it is unnecessary to state that the Sheriff is not ntitled to one dollar of this amount. This is one of the most barefaced jobs passed by the present Assembly, and quite worthy of any Tammany Legislature ever assembled at Albany.

H.

Five Reasons.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

As HORACE GREELEY expects to be the next President, and has often said that he has a reason for every act of his life, I have been studying out his reasons for the expectation.

1. He expects the Roman Catholic support, because, scorning our free American schools, he has sent as many children as he could to be educated in the Roman Catholic Convent of the Sacred Heart.

2. He expects the Northern Copperhead support because he bullied the Administration during the war and bailed JEFF. DAVIS at the close of the rebellion.

3. He expects the yet rebellious Southern support for the same reason. Of the Union Southern support he has no hope.

4. Nominated by disappointed office-seekers, he expects their ardent support, based on the promise "To the victors belong the spoils."

5. Because THEODORE WOODHULL TILTON helped to nominate him he expects the VIC. WOODHULL tribe of women-screechers to take the field and wear white coats, plug hats, and short trousers in his behalf. Dr. WALKER is already heard from.

The fact that JOHN MORRISSEY, ex-prize-fighter and a professional gambler, bets that he will be elected, should give Christian men another idea of who will work for the man who knows all about farming.

SHADE OF LINCOLN.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

SENATE....WASHINGTON, Wednesday, May 8.

On motion of Mr. HAMLIN, a resolution was adopted directing the Secretary of the Navy to furnish the Senate with copies of the report and maps of the survey of the Isthmus of Darien for an interoceanic ship-canal.

LOUISIANA ELECTION.

Mr. KELLOGG called up the bill providing that the Presidential election in Louisiana shall be held on the same day with the State election, the first Monday in November. He said the object of the bill was to avoid the trouble and expense of two elections in succession.

Mr. MORTON said that an additional advantage of the change would be that the Presidential election would get the benefit of the protection now provided by law for the State election.

At the expiration of the morning hour, which was mainly consumed in political debate, the bill went over.

POSTAL APPROPRIATIONS.

The Post-office Appropriation bill came up.

The amendment offered by Mr. NYE yesterday, and pending at the adjournment, was agreed to, and the bill was then passed.

COINAGE AND THE GOLD DOLLAR.

Mr. CONKLING presented the resolutions of the New-York Chamber of Commerce favoring a reduction of the coinage charges on gold and silver to the cost of refining and coinage; the establishment of the gold dollar as the unit of value, and recommending that the weight of the silver dollar be established at 385.80 grains, the equivalent of 25 metric grammes, so as practically to bring about a unification of the silver coinage of the world.

DEFENSE OF SETTLERS IN MONTANA.

Mr. WILSON, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported without amendment the House bill authorizing the issue of 1,000 rifled breech-loaders and ammunition to the authorities of Montana for the defense of the settlers against Indians.

GENERAL AMNESTY.

The Senate, on motion of Mr. BOREMAN, took up the House General Amnesty bill, and he addressed the Senate in favor of it.

Mr. SUMNER moved to strike out all after the enacting clause and insert the supplemental Civil Rights bill.

Mr. FERRY, of Connecticut, raised the point that the motion was not in order.

The Vice-President decided that it was in order.

Mr. TRUMBULL appealed from the decision of the Chair.

After a long discussion of the question of order, on motion of Mr. CARPENTER the appeal was laid on the table.

Mr. MORTON moved to amend so as to provide that before any person shall be entitled to the benefit of the act he shall swear that he is not, and has not been at any time within two years preceding the passage of this act, a member of either the "Invisible Empire of America," the "White Brotherhood," or the "Constitutional Union Guard," nor any branch of the "Kuklux Klan."

Mr. HILL moved to amend the bill so as to grant universal amnesty.

Mr. SHERMAN advocated the adoption of Mr. SUMNER's bill as a substitute for the Amnesty bill, for the purpose of giving the House an opportunity for a fair vote on the question of civil rights, and said he believed that if that question were out of the way a General Amnesty bill would pass the Senate by a three-fourths vote. He thought, however, that there was very little chance of an Amnesty bill passing the Senate until the House should have had an opportunity to vote on the Civil Rights bill.

Mr. TRUMBULL said he now saw that this Amnesty bill, like its predecessors, was to be tampered with and killed.

Mr. SHERMAN said that both the Civil Rights bill and the Amnesty bill were necessary in order to produce peace and harmony through the country.

Mr. MORTON withdrew his amendment.

An agreement was made that the general debate on the bill and amendments shall terminate at 3 o'clock to-morrow, and the bill be disposed of.

The Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

REPRESENTATION.

The House took up the Supplementary Apportionment bill, increasing the aggregate number of 283 Representatives, as fixed by the Apportionment law of last session to 292, the additional nine being given to New-Hampshire, Vermont, New-York, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Tennessee, Louisiana, Alabama and Florida, to be elected by separate districts, except for the Forty-third Congress, when they may be elected on a general ticket.

Mr. MERCUR, who reported the bill from the Judiciary Committee, addressed the House in explanation and advocacy of it.

After some discussion, Mr. RANDALL moved to lay the bill on the table, as tinkering with the apportionment. Negatived—yeas 80, nays 104.

The bill then passed without a division.

OTHER BILLS PASSED.

The Senate bill authorizing the construction of a railroad bridge across the St. Croix Lake, at Hudson, Wis., was taken up and passed.

Mr. DUELL introduced a bill to provide for an additional term of the United States District and Circuit Court at Syracuse, N. Y.; provided the city furnishes the Court-room at its own expense. Passed.

THE TARIFF AND TAX BILL.

The House then at 12½ went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. SCOFIELD in the chair, on the Tariff and Tax bill.

Mr. DAWES stated the reduction in the revenue, which he estimated, would be effected if the bill should become a law. These were: On coal, $322,881; salt, $615,522; leather and leather manufactures, $529,490; cotton manufactures, $1,077,283; wool manufactures, $3,358,274; iron manufactures, $1,231,280; other metals, $6,770; India rubber manufactures, $53,207; gutta-percha manufactures, $510; straw manufactures, $65,347; oil-cloths, $2,786; lumber, $761,801; all other articles, $614,605; free list, including tea and coffee, $17,500,976; reduction of tariff revenue, $26,140,833; reduction of internal revenue, $13,988,000; total, $40,128,832.

Tea and Coffee.

Mr. DAWES moved to strike out the items of tea and coffee.

The question of free tea and coffee gave rise to a long discussion, at the close of which the duties on tea and coffee were struck out of the bill.

Coal.

Mr. RITCHIE moved to increase the duty on bituminous coal and slate from fifty cents to $1 per ton.

Mr. FOSTER, of Pennsylvania, moved to strike out the whole paragraph.

At the close of the discussion Mr. RITCHIE's amendment was rejected.

Mr. MCGREW moved to make the rate seventy-five cents a ton. Agreed to—80 to 78.

Mr. FOSTER's motion to strike out the paragraph was rejected.

A New Item.

On motion of Mr. DAWES, a new item was inserted as follows: On culm of coal fifteen per cent. ad valorem.

Salt.

Mr. DUELL moved to amend the item of salt by making the duty twelve instead of eight cents per pound.

The salt question gave rise to another long discussion which had not closed when the Committee, at 4½ rose, and the House took a recess until 7½, the Evening Session to be for business of the Committee on Military Affairs.

EVENING SESSION.

The bill that was before the House at the adjournment last evening, to enable honorably discharged soldiers, their widows and orphans, to acquire homesteads on the public lands, came up first in order and was recommitted.

The following bills were reported from the Committee on Military Affairs and passed:

The House bill to amend the act of 22d February, 1867, to establish and protect national cemeteries.

A substitute for the Senate bill to authorize the sale of arsenals at Augusta, Ga., and other places.

Mr. SLOCUM reported the House bill providing that all retired officers of the army shall be retired at their actual, not their brevet rank, and with the pay prescribed for retired officers of the same rank in the regular army.

The bill gave rise to a long discussion, the opposition to it being on the ground that it was intended to apply to existing cases, instead of being confined to the future.

At the close of the discussion Mr. HALE moved an amendment that the bill shall not apply to the cases of officers heretofore retired under the provisions of law. Negatived.

Mr. LYNCH moved to lay the bill on the table. Negatived.

The bill was then passed without division.

The Senate amendments to the House bill to provide that minors shall not be enlisted without the consent of their parents or guardians, were concurred in.

The Senate bill to prohibit the retention of soldiers' discharges on land warrants by claim agents and attorneys, was passed without amendment.

The Senate bill to enable the President to appoint a Pay-master-General of the Army was reported, and gave rise to considerable discussion on the point whether this bill should be amended by making the Pay-master-General's rank that of Colonel. The amendment was agreed to, and the bill passed.

The House then, at 9½ o'clock, adjourned.

Mr. BRENTANO, (No. 33 Union-square,) has received a large supply of new publications by the last steamers. The Graphic and Illustrated London News are trying to outbid each other for public favor, and it is hard to say which is winning. Both periodicals are full of excellent pictures. Mr. BRENTANO, also, has the Saturday Review, Punch, Nature, and many other publications of interest. He is the proper man to receive orders for the Summer when anybody is about to quit New-York.

CANCER PLANT.
THE RECENTLY-DISCOVERED MEDICINAL PLANT.
THE GREAT PURIFIER OF THE HUMAN SYSTEM.
THE POPULAR REMEDIAL OF THE UNIVERSITY MEDICINES.
From the Commercial Advertiser.

These remedials are not patent medicines, but the scientific prescriptions of educated physicians. They are prepared on entirely new chemical principles, and possess unequaled efficacy and power. The results achieved by them border on the thaumaturgical. Diseases hitherto considered incurable are readily removed by their agency, and they have recently been the means of effecting some of the most remarkable cures.

COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT OF CANCER PLANT.

The Cancer Plant is a true purifier of the human blood. It is evidently destined to take its rank in the pharmacopœia as the most powerful alterative known to modern therapeutics. In every form of scrofulous, cancerous, infectious, mercurial and constitutional blood complaint, it stands without a compeer, rapidly curing ulcers, pustules, carbuncles, eczema, salt rheum, psoriasis, efflorescence, and the eighty-eight different varieties of skin affections. It is a positive cure for SCROFULA. Its purifying, vivifying and tonic properties exercise the most healthful influence in every known malady. It is harmless to an infant, and can never be used amiss. It is acquiring a world-wide celebrity, and thousands of boxes are being shipped to South America, Europe and Asia. In fourteen months the sales have reached the vast number of nearly 250,000 packages.

Price $2 per package, (with book,) or three packages for $5.

PROF. SCOTT AND ASSOCIATES: It is truly gratifying to know that science has at length triumphed over quackery. I have been using the UNIVERSITY MEDICINES in my regular practice for some time, with the most remarkable success. Disease of every character rapidly succumbs to their healthful influence. You are evidently destined to overthrow the old practice of medicine.

CHARLES K. DRAPER, M. D.

J. BUCKLER JONES, M. D.

NO. 50 MARKET-ST., PITTSBURG, Penn., July 1, 1870.

PROF. SCOTT: Although dispensing the UNIVERSITY MEDICINES but a short time, I am confident that where they are given a fair trial they will work wonders as curers of disease and give general satisfaction. All the remedies are proving successful, and my practice is rapidly increasing.

J. M. YOUNG, M. D.

CHICO, Cal., March 28, 1870.

NEW-YORK MEDICAL UNIVERSITY: Inclosed find $40. Send by Overland Express the following medicines. * * * The Cancer Plant is a splendid alterative. The Fever and Ague Globules have proved A No. 1. I shall do a fine business in the UNIVERSITY MEDICINES in California. I should like the agency of the State.

G. T. HENDERSON, M. D.

ASHLAND, Penn., 1870.

DEAR SIR: I have prescribed your Hydrated Oxymel for bronchitis and Yellow Jessamine for heart disease with great benefit, and am convinced of their efficacy.

DR. JOHN B. KENNEDY.

I find the UNIVERSITY MEDICINES work like a charm in my practice.

W. HOLMES, M. D.
W. WATERVILLE, Maine.

These remedials can be relied upon to effect all that is possible for any medicines to accomplish in the cure of disease.

They are compounded with the most assiduous care from fine chemicals, and with true knowledge of their therapeutic properties and physiological effects.

They are safe and never reduce a patient; never render any one more liable to take cold; never oblige a person to leave business; never make their continuous use a condition of cure.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

All the auctions involving the disposition of City real estate announced for yesterday, Wednesday, May 8, at the Exchange, and expected to occur, were adjourned as follows: By JAMES M. MILLER, legal sale of lot on the south-east corner of First-avenue and One Hundred and Seventeenth-street, adjourned until the 21st inst.; legal sale of house and lot on East Forty-eighth-street, 88 feet 8 inchest west of Second-avenue, adjourned until the 22d inst., and legal sale of house and lot on the north-west corner of Lexington-avenue and Twenty-second-street, adjourned until the 31st inst. The legal sale in charge of A. J. BLEECKER, SON & Co. of plot of ground, with building, situate at the junction of New Chambers, Oak and Roosevelt streets, was again adjourned for two weeks. The only sales made were effected by JERE. JOHNSON, Jr., who at public auction disposed of the following Brooklyn property: Two lots on Butler-street and one lot in rear on Park-place, between Flatbush and Vanderbilt avenues, sold for $4,200 each to WM. JOHNSTON; two lots on the north side of Atlantic-avenue Boulevard, forty feet east of Brooklyn-avenue, sold to ABRAM F. DOWNING, of Brooklyn, for $1.550 each. Four lots on Union-street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, sold to M. BLACK, of this City, for $1,850 each, and two lots on President-street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, sold to N. J. MARSELUS, of Elizabeth, N. J., for $2,250 each. The balance of the Brooklyn property offered was withdrawn from the want of adequate bids. Of the Bushwick Creek property, offered also at public auction by the same auctioneer, only two lots were sold, viz.: plot on Fifth-street, 50 by 33 by 20 by 56, sold for $1,075 to MORRIS POWS, and lot adjoining, 20 by 56, sold for $475 to JOSEPH CREMER. In addition, Mr. JOHNSON also sold by order of the executors of the estate of HORACE WHITTEMORE, deceased, a country residence, embracing a house, with plot of ground 180 by 215, located at Bound Brook, N. J., and situated on High-street, for $4,950, to R. H. SWAYCE. Nothing further of note occurred, the only other business transacted being the regular Wednesday stock auction conducted by MULLER, WILKINS & Co., a report of which is appended. In regard to the legal sales held at Yonkers and Sommers, Westchester County, yesterday, by JOSEPH MCGUIRE and HUGH N. CAMP, respectively, details as to the result in each instance will be given to-morrow.

For today, at the Exchange, but one auction is billed, viz.: By JAMES M. MILLER, under a Court order, sale of three houses and lots, on the north side of West Fifty-seventh-street, 50 feet east of Eleventh-avenue. The two following suburban sales are, however, announced for today by the auctioneers named, both worthy of notice, and to which the attention of investors is called: By E. H. LUDLOW & Co., at Far Rockaway, Long Island, on the premises, at 1 P. M., an executors' sale, by order of the executors of the estate of RICHARD BAINDRIDGE, deceased, the valuable and desirable plot of ground, about eight acres in extent, situated on Rockaway turnpike and Norton-lane, and lying directly on the ocean, together with the nine cottages and lodge thereon, known as the Marine Pavilion Grounds. The cottages are each two-story frame, and contain parlor, dining-room, kitchen and nine bedrooms. A stable, with lot of about one-half acre, on Catharine-street, opposite to Lockwood-street, will also be sold. The entire property will be disposed of in one parcel, or divided to suit purchasers. Trains leave foot of Roosevelt and foot of Grand streets at 8½ and 10 o'clock A. M., via South-side Railroad to Far Rockaway. By JERE. JOHNSON, Jr., at Inglewood, Queens, Long Island, on the ground at 12 M., at public auction, 200 handsomely-located lots, situated on the turnpike leading to Hempstead, on Wertland-avenue, and on Sedgwick, Sigourney, Irving, Whittier and Carey streets, in close proximity to the depot of the Long Island Railroad. Free special train for auction from Hunter's Point at 11½ A. M., via boats from James-slip and Thirty-fourth-street Ferries, at 11 o'clock. Tickets for excursion and maps of property can be obtained at office of auctioneer, No. 25 Nassau-street. As a large number of tickets have already been issued in anticipation of this auction, the transaction promises to be a success.

Aside from the interest felt on the part of capitalists, in relation to property situated on Manhattan Island, and the sales to occur next week in connection therewith, the attention of real estate operators is mainly centered in the great sale of lots which is advertised to take place at Elizabeth, N. J., on Monday, the 13th inst., A. D. MELLICK, JR., & BRO., auctioneers. The proposed auction is one deserving special mention, for the lots to be sold are not only admirably located, and situated on streets already opened, graded, sewered and guttered, within a moment's walk of the railway station, but the future importance of Elizabeth as a business city being now fully assured and its enterprise well known, a purchase of real estate here is morally certain to repay the buyer a handsome interest on the investment. The property is owned by Messrs. GRIFFITH & PRENTISS, embraces 600 lots carefully laid out, all of which will be offered on Monday next, without reserve, on the most reasonable terms. The population of Elizabeth numbers now 25,000, which is daily increasing. The city is only thirty-five minutes from New-York, with which it is in communication by 123 railway trains a day via either the Central or New-Jersey Railroads. Of late years no city in New-Jersey has manifested a greater spirit of progress or improved more rapidly. Its streets are well paved, while over seventy-five miles of avenues are graded, fifty miles curbed, and sidewalks flagged, twenty-one miles paved with wood of Belgian block, and twenty-five miles sewered. Over 400 dwellings have been built within the past year, and nearly as many more are in process of erection, many of them of an extensive character, such as the Westminster Church, costing $200,000; the Arcade building, $150,000; Orphan Asylum, costing $50,000, and others too numerous to mention. The Singer Sewing-machine Company have also recently selected Elizabeth as the location of its new manufactory, which, when completed, will probably be the largest of its kind in the world, for, when finished, (which will be within a year,) four and a half acres of land will be under roof. This factory will employ 2,500 operatives, and its location here will probably add at the least figure 7,000 souls to the population of the city. A park has also been recently laid out containing twelve acres, which will add much to the beauty of the place, in the immediate vicinity of which lies the property to be sold. The religious privileges of the city are in addition numerous, the churches already erected being large and costly, while educational advantages are of a high order. The importance, therefore, of the coming sale is not overestimated, for from the facts stated the inducements for a purchase, by those seeking a home near to this City as will be seen, are many, and few opportunities during the business season are presented for making a better or more judicious investment. The auction will be held on Monday, on the premises, at North Elizabeth Station, at 12 M., and on the day of sale a free special train will be run, leaving the foot of Cortlandt and Desbrosses street, via ferry, 11½ A. M. Tickets for the excursion can be obtained of the auctioneers in charge, at No. 6 Pine-street, or of the owners of the realty, at their office, No. 40 Walker-street. Several desirable houses, recently built, will be also offered for sale with portions of the property. The transaction deserves and should be attended with the fullest success.

V. K. STEVENSON & SON, No. 11 Pine-street, report having recently, at private sale, disposed of two lots on the north side of East Sixty-second-street, 100 feet west of Fourth-avenue, for $27,000; sold for Mr. MICHAEL MURRAY. Also, three lots on the west side of Ninth-avenue, 25.5 feet south of Fifty-eighth-street; sold for Mr. GERSON FREDENHEIT for $28,000. Total, $55,500.

A. JOURNEAY, real estate broker, has removed his office from Pine-street to No. 43½ Lispenard-street, near Broadway. Mr. JOURNEAY has on his books, for sale or to rent, a choice lot of both improved and unimproved City real estate, the list of which those seeking an investment will find it to their interest to consult.

ANNIVERSARIES.

Society Gatherings at Public Institutions Yesterday.

The Female Guardian, American Home Missionary and American Tract Societies—The Universal Peace Union.

American Female Guardian Society.

The American Female Guardian Society held its thirty-eighth annual meeting yesterday, at the Home Chapel, No. 29 East Twenty-ninth-street. Visitors and delegates from other cities were present and gave satisfactory accounts of the work accomplished in their respective districts. Many interesting letters were read from beneficiaries of the Society and former inmates of the Home. During the past year the home has sheltered 734 inmates, 457 of whom were children. The receipts have been $49,464 64, its expenditures $52,674 86, and to raise the necessary funds to meet the deficit a mortgage on the "Home" property has been resorted to. In the report an urgent appeal is made for aid in the work of the Society. In addition to the Home, there are eleven industrial schools, under the same supervision, scattered in different localities throughout the City, with 4,730 names enrolled. More than 619,000 meals have been given, and 900 adults furnished with situations, and still the necessity continues for renewed exertion on the part of the friends of the institution. At the Home, in addition to the nursery, sewing-rooms and industrial schools, there is a ward, under the care of Dr. TIEBOLD, for little waifs who are the victims of hereditary disease. The ladies have opened a house in Brooklyn, where, instead of giving charity, they endeavor to make the recipients of their kindness as nearly self-supporting as possible by taking washing, sewing, &c., into the house. The ladies of Brooklyn are solicited to aid in this enterprise by giving all the work they can to the house. After the reading and adoption of various reports the meeting adjourned for a lunch in the children's dining rooms, while the children were preparing to take part in the afternoon exercises. These were very interesting. The society publishes a semi-monthly paper entitled The Advocate and Female Guardian, edited by Mrs. HELEN E. BROWN.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. CHARLES C. NORTH. Honorary President—Mrs. C. W. Hawkins. Secretaries—Mrs. J. M. Hubbard, Mrs. Harris Wilson, Mrs. S. R. I. Bennett. Treasurer—Mrs. S. A. Stone. Executive Committee—Mrs. C. C. North, Mrs. S. R. I. Bennett, Mrs. S. A. Stone, Mrs. E. W. Chester, Mrs. R. M. Buchanan, Mrs. Harris Wilson, Mrs. Jas. Bayles, Mrs. S. M. Ambler, Mrs. J. F. Joy, Mrs. E. S. West, Mrs. H. E. Brown. Board of Counselors—Rev. S. H. Tyng, D. D., Rev. J. Dowling, D. D., Rev. Bishop Ed. Janes, G. B. Cheever, D. D., C. C. North, Adon Smith, Francis P. Schoals, Jas. O. Bennett, Albon P. Man, J. A. H. Bell, Stephen Cutter.

American Home Missionary Society—Annual Meeting and Report.

The forty-sixth annual meeting of the American Home Missionary Society was held at the Bible House yesterday. The annual report, embracing the following information and statistics, was read:

During the last year three of its Vice-Presidents, Rev. N. G. S. BEMAN, D. D., LL. D., Rev. GEO. E. PIERCE, D. D., and J. PAYSON WILLISTON, Esq., have died; also, one of its Superintendents, Rev. JESSE GUERNSEY, D. D., and six of its missionaries.

In twenty-nine States and Territories the Society has 961 ministers of the Gospel. Four hundred and forty-seven of these are over single churches. Three hundred and thirty-nine have two or three congregations apiece, and 175 have still wider fields. Three missionaries have congregations of colored people, 21 have Welsh, 13 German, and 2 have congregations of Swedes. The number of congregations and missionary stations supplied is 2,011. The number of pupils in Sabbath-schools is 76,500. Eighty-four churches have been organized during the past year, and 46 have become self-supporting. Forty-four houses of worship have been completed, 97 repaired, and 43 others are in process of erection. One hundred and ten churches have had revivals, and 3,533 conversions are reported. The additions to the churches have been 6,358. The receipts have been $291,566 86; the expenditures, $281,182 50. There are $20,202 65 still due to missionaries for labor performed. In addition to past dues, appropriations already made and daily becoming due amount to $132,285 85, making the total of pledges $152,488 15, to redeem which there is a balance in the treasury of only $13,404 55. The receipts exceed those of the previous year by $47,899 60, and those of any preceding year by $11,463 99. Clothing, books, periodicals and other articles to the amount of $50,000 have also been donated to the Society. The income has not kept pace with the wants of the missionary field, and it is only by extraordinary exertions that the Churches were brought to realize the difficulties under which the Society has been laboring. At the beginning of the year the treasury was exhausted, and the sum of $16,000 was due to the missionaries for labor performed. The deficiency increased during the Summer and Autumn, and many of the missionaries failed to receive remittances. But the repeated appeals of the Committee finally elicited a satisfactory response. At the close of the year, the amount due to missionaries above the sum in the treasury was only $6,798.

After the reading of the report, the election for officers ensued. THEODORE D. WOOLSEY, D. D., was elected President. The newly-elected Vice-Presidents are Rev. E. B. Webb, D. D., and Ezra Farnsworth, Esq., both of Boston. Rev. Geo. B. Bacon, of Orange, N. J., was chosen as a director to fill a vacancy. Rev. Milton Badger was elected Honorary Secretary. The Corresponding Secretaries are Rev. Drs. David B. Coe, A. H. Clapp, D. D., and Rev. Henry M. Storrs, of Brooklyn. Mr. STORRS is newly elected, and those interested are in hopes he will accept of the position. The Treasurer is Wm. Henry Smith; the Auditor, Geo. S. Coe, and the Recording Secretary Austin Abbott.

Meeting of the American Tract Society—Interesting Statistics.

The forty-seventh annual meeting of the American Tract Society was held, yesterday, in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association building. The business of the Society was transacted in the morning, and the evening was devoted to the celebration of the anniversary, by hearing addresses from well-known clergymen. At 7½ o'clock the platform was occupied by the speakers and officers of the Society. Among the former was Father GAVAZZI, whose bronzed face and keen features attracted universal attention from the distinguished visitors who crowded the body of the hall. The chair was occupied by Rev. GEORGE L. PRENTISS, Vice-President, and he stated that the evening's exercises would be commenced by the singing of the beautiful hymn, "Joy to the world, the Lord is come," by the entire assembly. After this harmonious beginning, Dr. STEPHEN TYNG, Jr., delivered an eloquent prayer for the blessing of God upon the work of the association, that it might be as abundantly shown in the future as it had been in the past. When he had ended, Rev. Dr. STEVENS, one of the Secretaries, addressed the assembly upon the question of the Treasurer's report, saying that it had been given in full in the morning, but that he would give a brief abstract of it. The income of the association during the past year had been $538,000. Four-fifths of this sum had been expended in the publishing department, which had issued 356,000 volumes and 8,000,000 of periodicals. The remaining fifth, $112,000, had been expended as follows: $50,000 colportage, $49,000 given away in books to destitute families, and the remaining $7,000 given to foreign missions. The expenses of the Society were paid by the small profit arising from the eight great societies in the country, so that every dollar given by the churches had been expended for the purpose for which it was donated. At the conclusion of this report, the President read a letter from Bishop McILVAINE, of Chicago, in which he greatly regretted his inability to be present. He then introduced the speaker of the evening, who greatly interested and delighted the audience.

The Universal Peace Union at the Cooper Institute—Addresses.

The Universal Peace Union opened its annual meeting at Room No. 24 Cooper Institute, yesterday morning. ALFRED H. LOVE, of Philadelphia, took the chair, and LILLIE DEVEREAUX BLAKE and AMANDA DEYO acted as Secretaries. After appointing several committees, letters were read from WM. LLOYD GARRISON, JULIA WARD HOWE and others, expressing their regret at being unable to attend, and assuring the meeting of their cordial sympathy and co-operation. A letter was also received from MARVIN H. BOVIE, of White Water, Wis., stating that he has succeeded in carrying the State against capital punishment, and that the bill has passed both Houses, and been signed by the Governor. In the afternoon session Dr. FREDERICK MARVIN spoke strongly in favor of the abolition of capital punishment. Mr. LOVE spoke upon the necessity of bringing the Indians under the power of the Peace Union, and read letters from tribes which have been experimented with by members of the organization.

Messrs. BURNHAM, WARDWELL and JOHN M. SPEAR, gentleman noted for going bail for people who are unable to get it elsewhere, spoke in favor of prison reform, and gave sketches drawn from actual experience of the softening power of kindness upon the criminal's heart. In the evening a large number of nominations for the offices of Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretaries and Executive Committee were confirmed. ZERAH WHIPPLE, of Mystic, Conn., made a few remarks. Mrs. ELLEN DIETZ recited a poem deprecating war and its ravages. LYDIA DEVEREAUX BLAKE addressed the audience at length in the same strain as the last speaker. Dr. SHEPHARD recommended a mild war policy; he wouldn't fight unless it was necessary, but if forced to it would not submit tamely. President LOVE dissented from the speaker's remarks. A gentleman in one corner of the room suddenly arose, and, interrupting President LOVE, pitched into the Society and its objects in a violent manner. He wished to know if an assassin should come up to murder him would he not be justified in resisting? President LOVE seemed very much astonished that a member of the Society should even think of resisting, and said that the only proper way would be to let the assassin do his deadly work without resistance. He said that if he were attacked in this way he would deliver up his miserable life at once, and by the beauty of his death instil into the breast of the assassin pure and noble thoughts. The Geneva Court of Arbitration was also commended, and it was hoped that by their decision war may be avoided. Mr. G. W. MADDOX spoke at some length upon the various questions brought before the Peace Union, and after some unimportant business the meeting adjourned.

New-York Universalist Association.

The annual meeting of the New-York Association of Universalists took place at the Bleecker-street Universalist Church yesterday. The Moderator of the Society, Mr. W. A. CONENT, presided. The Committee on Credentials presented a favorable report. There are in the limits of the Association eighteen institutions, fourteen of which are in active operation. The First, Second, Third and Centenary Societies of Brooklyn, the societies at Hudson, Huntington, Nyack and Orangeville are especially working favorably. The Young Men's Universalist Association, and the Missionary Universalist Association, and the Missionary Universalist Society, are also working well. The following exhibit will show the success of the several societies:

The First Universalist Society of Williamsburg have property to the value of $35,000, and an average congregation of 250. The Second Universalists of New-York City have for several years suspended weekly services. Since the last report its real estate has been sold, and the property now is valued at $14,000. They still adhere to their intention to locate at Harlem. The Third Universalist Society has an unincumbered church edifice, corner of Bleecker and Downing streets; 150 families in the parish; Sunday services, morning and evening, with an average congregation of 400; the pastor received a salary of $3,000. There were 201 members, 268 pupils in Sunday-schools, and a library of 1,925 volumes. The Fourth Society has property corner of Fifth-avenue and Forty-fifth street valued at $300,000; 300 families in the parish; 299 members; 297 pupils in the schools; library, 1,468 volumes. The members of this Society have donated over $30,000 during the year for various schools and charities. The Fifth Association worships in Chickering Hall. Hudson (Columbia County) Society has property valued at $40,000, and a parsonage adjacent at $8,000, which was the gift, during the past year, of Miss SARAH GAGE. There are 167 families in the parish. In Huntington, Suffolk County, the Society has a church and parsonage valued at $14,000. There are twenty-five families in the parish, but at present no pastor.

The report was received and referred back to the Committee for correction, while the Committee on Religious Services were empowered to appoint religious conferences during the year at such times as they may think proper.

In the evening a meeting to advocate the establishment of a book concern similar to that of the Methodists was held at the Universalist Church, Forty-fifth-street and Fifth-avenue, when addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. CHAPIN, HORACE GREELEY and Mr. PULLMAN. Finally the Chairman, Mr. E. W. CROWELL, was empowered to appoint a Committee of nine to take into consideration the scheme, as well as that of establishing a first-class paper, the names of the Committee to be advertised. The meeting then adjourned.

The National Temperance Society.

The National Temperance Society held its seventh annual Conference yesterday. J. N STEARNS, the Corresponding Secretary, read the annual report, by which it appeared that for the year ending April 30, 1872, the Society had issued fifty new books, tracts and pamphlets bearing upon the temperance question. The receipts for the past year are as follows: Publication department, $42,916 54; donations, bequests and memberships, $6,432 25. Total receipts, $49,348 79. Expenses for the year, $49,264 62.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: WM. E. DODGE, President; J. N. STEARNS, Secretary; and T. T. SHEFFIELD, Treasurer. In the evening a meeting was held in the hall of the Cooper Union, Rev. Dr. FOSS presiding.

Rev. GEO. H. HEPWORTH, in stating the objects of the Society, said it was commenced by humble citizens, and, owing to their continued exertions, success had attended the organization. Sobriety was the level of honest self-respect and the result of honest control. The vice of intoxication pervades alike the palace and the hovel. The vice is one which creeps on its victims by insensible degrees. He illustrated this part of his subject by relating the story of the capture of Gulliver by the Lilliputians, who bound the giant with slender threads, commencing with his fingers and gradually securing his arms and legs. He laughed at their puny efforts, but when he tried to free himself he found it impossible. So it is with the drunkard. He gives himself to a power greater than his own resolution. Dr. HEPWORTH closed his discourse by entreating his audience to join the organization, and do all that in them lay to discountenance the degrading vice of intemperance.

Rev. M. C. BRIGGS, of Cincinnati, denounced the venders of intoxicating liquors as the more guilty party. J. MOSES'

Electro Galvanic, Pat. 2 June, '68.

STARTLING AND BEAUTIFUL INVENTION!

A CONTINUOUS STREAM OF ELECTRICITY CONVEYED TO THE OPTIC NERVE!! THE ORGAN OF SIGHT RESTORED TO ITS ORIGINAL STRENGTH!!! EYE EMPLOYMENT, HOWEVER CONTINUOUS, RENDERED FREE FROM DISCOMFORT!!!!

BY T. MOSES'
PATENT ELECTRO-GALVANIC SPECTACLES.

This invention has been pronounced by the best medical authorities of the greatest value, and, as an application of electricity to the restoration of impaired or defective sight, of inestimable benefit to spectacle-wearers.

The galvanic pill is inclosed in rubber cases half an inch in diameter and one-sixth of an inch in depth, and is attached by insulated screws to the side of the patented spectacle. Its galvanic action can be distinctly discovered when applied to the tongue, and gives a continuous current of electro-galvanism, yet will not excite any unpleasant sensation in the most nervous person. Not only is the optic nerve restored to its normal electrical condition by its use, and its important functions quickened and brightened, but it affects most beneficially the nerves of special sense and the nerve centres, the brain and spinal marrow.

This invention is now placed before the public, after having been subjected to the most critical examination and to the severest tests, and in a very large number of cases has proved of great and permanent benefit. It entirely relieves spectacle-wearers from the discomfort occasioned by the use of ordinary spectacles, and will surely and certainly restore, strengthen and preserve the sight. They can be had of respectable jewelers and resident opticians throughout the United States, who will be supplied from the Wholesale Depots, No. 10 Cortlandt-st., New-York, and No. 398 Main-st., Hartford, Conn.

GETTYSBURG
KATALYSINE WATER.

These who are disposed to class the GETTYSBURG KATALYSINE WATER with the quack medicines and the new mineral spring water of the day, may easily disabuse their minds of this impression by reference to the United States Dispensatory, the highest authority known to druggists or physicians. By turning to page 139 of the Thirteenth Revised Edition of this work, they will perceive that the Gettysburg Spring, of some eight years of age, is classed with the European Vichy and Pyrmont, as many hundred years old; in other words, is assigned the foremost rank among the great aqueous medicines of the world. This work is kept by all druggists, and we prefer that all who read this advertisement shall examine it as a precaution against deception. Dr. Bell, author of a standard medical work on Mineral Springs, states that the "Gettysburg Water has produced signally curative and restorative effects upon different forms: Dyspepsia, Sickness of the Stomach, Heartburn, Waterbrash, Acute Neuralgic Pains, Loss of Appetite, Chronic Diarrhœa, Torpid Liver, Gout, Chronic Rheumatism, Nodiates of the Joints, Approaching and Actual Paralysis, Diabetes, General Debility, Hematuria, Abdominal Dropsy, Cholera Infantum, Genito-Urinary Disorders, Kidney Diseases," &c., &c. The New-York Medical Record states that the "Gettysburg Water is a regulator of all the secretions and excretions." The Philadelphia Medical and Surgical Reporter, another leading medical journal, states that it is "adapted to Dyspepsia, Disorders of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Impoverished Blood, or Anemia."

Beebe & Co., No. 94 Lombard-st., Baltimore; Smith, Potts & Underhill, Corner of 9th and D sts., Washington, D. C. Water supplied by the above Agents, and by all respectable Druggists.
